

Opposition to Building Is Voiced, Reasons are Vague

By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer
Outspoken opposition to construction of a new Salvation Army building on a proposed site at 3521 Johnson Road was voiced by a delegation Monday night at a hearing in which several Granite City aldermen also expressed displeasure with the site.

Approximately 30 persons questioned whether the location would best serve the purposes of the Salvation Army.

They questioned Salvation Army representatives at length as to the purposes of the building while Alderman Thomas Boker of the Seventh Ward, in which the site is located, repeatedly asked if the new building is to be a church.

Defending the Johnson Road location and current plans to build a one-story multi-purpose structure were Brigadier John W. Paton, commander of the St. Louis Salvation Army division; Lieutenant Donald R. Noyes, Granite City Corps officer; and Richard West, chairman of the Salvation Army Advisory Board.

Boker requested hearing. The hearing in the city hall council chambers was scheduled at Boker's request. It was conducted by the city council's Zoning and Planning Committee, headed by Alderman Charles Moerlen and including Aldermen Everett Morlen and Gerald Parmley, members.

As the hearing convened, Boker explained that he had requested it to determine if the building proposed by the Salvation Army on the Johnson Road site is to be a church "in the true sense of the word," so that council and zoning officials could determine whether or not rezoning is involved in the proposed construction.

No Rezoning Required
Boker said that if the building is to be a church there would be no requirement for rezoning, since the present city zoning ordinance permits church construction within an R-1 (single family residential) zone.

There are other activities—such as scouting, young people's meetings and group activities that fall within the framework of church activity.

The Brigadier, who was among Salvation Army officials who first presented plans for construction of a new building on Johnson Road in a similar hearing at the city hall last spring, said the proposed new Citadel is sorely needed to meet the service activities of the Salvation Army.

The present building at 1421 Nineteenth St. is outgrown by the organization's needs, he said, stressing that all welfare activities, including the Tree of Lights program, would remain at the downtown headquarters. Chairman West told the group: "The Salvation Army has its basis in its religious foundation. Its basic work is its Christian outreach to the people. Virtually all denominations have in their programs the same type of activities as all churches do."

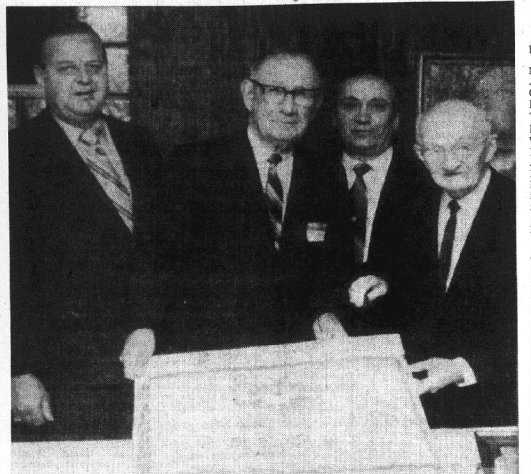

Not for Welfare Phase
"The present building is inadequate for these activities. The purpose of the new Citadel is to better serve those people who come within the scope of the Salvation Army program. The welfare factor is not a purpose for which this building is intended."

Lists Activities
Lt. Noyes told the group the Citadel would have a seating capacity of 100 for church services. He detailed day-to-day activities which would be conducted in the building, and the hours the building would be open each day. One man in the audience told the Salvation Army representatives that he believed the organization should solicit funds for the building from among its own membership "if you are a church." He said he felt that the organization would lose its status as a United Fund agency if it were designated strictly as a church.

Strikes Parked Car
The auto of Henry Jones, 215 Harrison St., Madison, southbound on Circle Drive at Lee Wright Homes, skidded on ice and struck the right rear fender of the auto of Vernice Johnson, 716 Jackson St., West Madison, at 4:10 p.m. Tuesday. Minor damage to the Johnson auto was reported.

VETERAN ELKS MEMBERS HONORED by Lodge 1063 Tuesday night. From left to right are William A. Russell, master-of-ceremonies; Bryan L. Compton, an Elk for 52 years; E. David Whitsell, exalted ruler; and Clarence Lile, who has 64 years of service in the local lodge and is the only living charter member. The cake has Elk symbol and the 11 p.m. time at which deceased members are honored.

Elks Honor Life, Member 64 Years, Compton, 52 Years

More than 40 "old timers," a district business meeting will begin at 2:30 p.m. Sunday for the men. While the meeting is in session, the ladies will be entertained with a fashion and wig show.

Special honors were awarded to Clarence Lile, the only charter member of the lodge surviving, and Bryan Compton, who was exalted ruler 46 years ago. Compton was presented with a 50-year pin.

Lile has been active in the lodge 64 years and Compton, 52. The "old timers" constituted a majority; about 25 other regular members joined them at the dinner.

District Meeting Here
At the regular business meeting following the dinner, plans for the Southwest winter meeting, to be held Saturday and Sunday at the local lodge, were announced. About 75 Elks from nine area lodges are expected to attend.

Activities will begin at 7 p.m. Saturday and a dance, featuring the Wayne Scannell Orchestra, will be held from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

At 11 a.m. Sunday, registration will resume for those who came only for Sunday's activities. At 1:30 p.m., a District Deputy Clinic will be held for exalted rulers and officers of the nine lodges.

Governor to Address Local Manufacturers' Association

Governor Richard B. Ogilvie of Illinois will address the annual meeting of the Manufacturers' Association of the Tri-Cities on Thursday evening, Jan. 28, at the Glen Echo Country Club, St. Louis County.

Gov. Ogilvie will discuss state government issues affecting industries in this area. The occasion will mark completion of the 57th year of the local association, whose president is Paul Kemp, manager of the A. O. Smith Corp. plant in Granite City. The annual report of the association will be presented during the evening. Elected governor in 1968, Mr. Ogilvie began his public service career in 1958, when he left the practice of law to become a special assistant to the U. S. attorney general. As chief of the Midwest office, he launched investigations into crime syndicate operations in Chicago, climaxed by indictment and conviction of the gang leader.

County Board President
In 1962, Gov. Ogilvie was elected sheriff of Cook County; in 1966, he was elected Cook County Board president. In both positions, he instituted major reforms. Born in Kansas City, Mo., and raised in Illinois and New York, he attended Yale University and enlisted in the Army Tank Corps, serving as a gunner in a tank battalion.

On Dec. 13, 1944, he was severely wounded in heavy fighting at an anchor fort of the Maginot Line. A graduate of Yale and the Chicago Kent College of Law, he is married to the former Dorothy Shriver. They have one daughter, Elizabeth.

Bernard Carey Heads Special Prosecution Unit

Illinois Attorney General William J. Scott announced this week that Bernard Carey, the Republican nominee for Sheriff of Cook County in the last election, has joined his staff and will head the newly organized Special Prosecution Division.

Scott said the new Division was created to establish a statewide unit to combat organized crime through civil prosecutions. The Attorney General said he knows of no man as well equipped as Bernard Carey to handle the program.

Scott stated that the office of Attorney General of Illinois was singled out by the Law Enforcement Assistance Division of the U. S. Department of Justice for a direct Federal Grant of $20,000 to set up and finance the pilot program Carey will direct. Scott said it is unprecedented for the office of the Attorney General to receive a direct Federal Grant.

Scott explained that the new Division will have a staff of eight lawyers including Carey and six investigators and will operate in such areas as liquor and drug control, official misconduct, the link between crime and politics and will utilize all powers vested in the Attorney General by the constitution and the laws of Illinois, including state Anti-trust and Revenue laws.

The Attorney General characterized the Anti-trust case against hoodlum infiltrated organizations of the juke box industry in which an injunction was entered Jan. 5 by Circuit Court Judge Samuel Epstein as a major victory which dramatically demonstrates the efficiency of attacking organized crime by prosecution under civil laws.

Scott stated: "As a top rated FBI Agent and Deputy Director of the Illinois Department of Law Enforcement and the organizer of the Illinois Bureau of Investigation, Carey has had wide experience and an enviable record of accomplishment in every area of operation planned for the Special Prosecution Division."

"Carey has demonstrated a rare ability to work with and earn the confidence and the cooperation of Federal, state and local law enforcement agencies which will be essential to the success of the program."

Carey is a graduate (BA) of

LT. GOV. PAUL SIMON
Seal Drive Chairman

St. Mary's College, Winona, Minn., and received his law degree (JD) from De Paul University. He was admitted to the practice of law in the State of Illinois in 1958. He is 36 years old, is married and lives with his wife and five children at 540 E. 168th Place, South Holland, Illinois.

Work to Start Soon on Sewage Treatment Plants

Timber buyers may now apply for their 1971 state licenses. John A. Sester, conservation department forester, announced. The license, required by law, defines "timber buyers" as persons engaged in the business of buying timber from growers for processing or resale.

Operating without a permit is punishable by a minimum fine of $100 or six months in jail or both. Sester said the law was enacted to protect timber growers from being victimized by unscrupulous buyers.

Applications may be obtained from the 21 forestry field offices of the state forester's office, State Office Building, Springfield. They must be returned to the Springfield office.

Paul Simon Heads Easter Seal Drive

Illinois Lieutenant Governor Paul Simon of Troy will serve as campaign chairman for the 1971 Easter Seal Society's fundraising drive in Southwestern Illinois, it was announced this week.

"I, Gov. Simon is always sympathetic and helpful to programs in rehabilitation of the handicapped and has agreed to head our campaign," Mrs. Marie M. Ropp, executive director, Easter Seal Society of Southwestern Illinois, said today.

The area covered by the drive includes the counties of Madison, St. Clair, Jersey, Monroe, Washington, Bond and Clinton, Mrs. Ropp noted.

To Aid Handicapped
Funds from the campaign, to be conducted March 1 through Easter Sunday, April 11, support direct services to the physically handicapped children and adults in the seven-county area.

Three pre-schools, located at Granite City, Alton and Bellefonte, Ill., serve physically handicapped youngsters. A fourth pre-school is needed when funds are available, Mrs. Ropp said.

Speech therapy serves both children and adults, with programs carried out at treatment centers and nursing homes throughout the area, she explained.

Loan equipment is available at no cost to the individual by contacting the Society's office at Sixth and Alby Streets in Alton.

Classes Dismissed Friday at Venice

Classes will be dismissed tomorrow at Venice public schools in observance of the late Dr. Martin Luther King's birthday. It was announced this week by Robert M. Vickers, assistant superintendent.

Teachers, cafeteria workers and custodial staff members also will not report to school Friday, Vickers said.

A human relations workshop previously set for tomorrow, in which faculty members were to take part, has been rescheduled for a later date, the administrator said.

Enters Hospital
Gene R. McGovern 2500 Edison Ave., entered Jewish Hospital in St. Louis Tuesday, preparatory to undergoing surgery later this week. His room number is 225.

Can't Believe it Until You See it, Amvet Speaker says of Berlin Wall

"Anyone who has become complacent about the situation still existing in Europe today should make a trip to Berlin," Donald Russell, state commander of the Illinois American Legion, commented this week when he addressed representatives of the Amvets Fifth Division meeting in Granite City.

More than 80 delegates from posts in southwestern Illinois attended the Fifth Division business meeting and program, hosted by Quad-City Amvets Post 51 at the Post Home, 5100 Lakeside Drive.

The state officer was introduced by Leo Clements of Granite City, Fifth Division commander. Also among the guests was John "Raisin" Cain of Manchester, Mo., former post chairman of the Amvets' national organization.

Russell discussed with the division delegates and auxiliary members a trip taken last month to Germany and Belgium, which he described as "an unprecedented journey for the Amvets governing body."

90-Mile Trip

He explained a 90-mile delegation of top Amvet officials, including commanders from each state association, took part in the eight-day informative tour. The group traveled by air to Brussels, Belgium, where NATO headquarters are located, and to East and West Berlin.

Commenting on his reactions at first viewing the Berlin Wall, Russell said, "You can't believe it until you see it for yourself. They not only shoot those coming this way (West Berlin), but anyone going the other way too."

He noted that Berlin was 90% destroyed in World War II, "not by allied bombing, as I have always believed, but by Russian artillery."

Recounting events during a visit to East Berlin, Russell said, "There are some beautiful buildings and boulevards, but you don't see many people on the streets, and very little transportation."

"A West German with relatives in the Eastern sector told me that most of those in East Germany do not consider themselves prisoners. That is their way of life," Russell repeated.

Tanks in View

The Amvet commander described a train journey between Berlin and Brussels, which included 105 miles through East Germany.

"The Russians are always training and have the equipment," Adjacent to most towns through which the train passed, many Soviet tanks could be seen in fields within view of the train passengers, he noted.

"The line that divides East and West Germany is not an imaginary line, but very real," the state officer said. "It is a vast difference in the Eastern Zone . . . no livestock to speak of . . . no kids waving at the train as you go by and few fenced in pastures. They just have fences to keep the people in, I guess," he said.

"When we crossed into the Western Zone, it was as if we were in a different world . . . kids riding bicycles and people busy and all over. Anyone who has become complacent about the situation there should make this trip."

One woman whom the Amvet leader questioned about fear of a possible Soviet takeover in Germany, answered, "You people don't know what war is."

by allied bombing, as I have always believed, but by Russian artillery."

Recounting events during a visit to East Berlin, Russell said, "There are some beautiful buildings and boulevards, but you don't see many people on the streets, and very little transportation."

"A West German with relatives in the Eastern sector told me that most of those in East Germany do not consider themselves prisoners. That is their way of life," Russell repeated.

American Legion District Convention Here in June

Plans for the American Legion's 22nd District convention to be held in Granite City were discussed at a planning committee meeting Tuesday evening at the Tri-City American Legion Post, 24th Street and Madison Avenue.

Approximately 2,000 delegates are expected to attend the convention here June 12 and 13 at the Venice-Madison Post home in Venice.

The committee discussed plans for a parade, to be held at 4 p.m. Saturday, June 12, in which American Legion units and units will join with outside entries for what Legion members hope will be the largest parade of the year in the Quad-Cities. David Morris of Granite City, chairman of the planning committee, said the American Legion will begin taking applications for parade entries early in May.

The committee also discussed the publication of a program book for the convention which will include meeting formal and advertisements from local sponsors. Funds received from the sale of advertisements in the book will be used for parade costs, Morris said.

Auxiliary to Participate

Plans for meetings and activities during the two day convention were discussed by the committee. Morris said that the American Legion Auxiliary, the women's branch of the organization, will meet at 9 a.m. June 12 for their business session which is expected to be completed by parade time.

At 7 p.m. Saturday, June 12, the Commander's Banquet will be held honoring R. E. "Dick" Nicholas of Danville, state commander; Tony Pechenik of Christopher, division commander; and Robert Douglas of Granite City, district commander. Men's committees will meet Saturday and Sunday mornings preparing for the main convention session at 1 p.m. Sunday.

The climax of the convention will be the election June 13 of a new district commander and delegates to the National American Legion Convention, Morris said.

At a meeting during the weekend Nicholas was the principal speaker. The official recognition is touring the state in an effort to secure improved benefits for the Vietnam veterans and also to encourage recruitment of younger veterans into active roles with the American Legion.

Robert Douglas of Granite

City officiated as district commander. A. B. Harris, Stanley Edwards, Bill Noyert and Morris, all of Tri-City Post 113, were among the delegates attending. The 22nd District covers five counties in southwestern Illinois, including Madison County.

Madison Man Charged After Venice Fight

James Humble, 37, of 213 W. Second St., Madison, was a plaintiff in the county circuit court of $2,500 bond Monday on a charge of aggravated battery during a fight in the alley behind 1114 Douglas Ave., Venice. Humble was cut with a knife in the fight, police said.

Police said witnesses saw the two fighting and notified Venice officers. When police arrived, they found Humble lying on the ground and Humble nearby. Both were taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital for emergency treatment. Humble was treated for a four-inch cut over his eye and possible internal injuries, and was transferred to Erie DeLoe Hospital in critical condition.

Humble was treated for a three and one-half inch cut to the left side of his neck, and the alleged fight, the hospital following treatment. He was arrested a short time later at American Legion, Post 799, Venice, police reported.

Phoenix to Play at YMCA Dance on Friday

The YMCA Teen Town in Granite City will feature "Phoenix" Friday night at its weekly dance.

The dance has been changed from Saturday to Friday in order to avoid conflict with the high school basketball game scheduled Saturday, along with the 5th quarter activities scheduled that same night by the Young Life Group. Regular admission will be charged for the 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. dance. "Phoenix" has appeared at the "Y" on several previous occasions.

Other upcoming scheduled dances include Jan. 23, "Fatima"; Jan. 30, "Shotgun Express"; formerly Rock; Feb. 6, "Jake Jones"; and Feb. 13, "Alice & Omar."

Five County Special Use Permits Approved

Five special use permits for petitioners in area townships were approved Wednesday morning by the Madison County Board of Supervisors on the recommendation of the Zoning Board of Appeals. They are:

Mrs. Dorothy Schaefer, owner, and A. H. Seebold Trucking & Excavating Co., purchaser, for a borrow pit for removal of sand for use in construction work behind the St. Louis Slag Co. property. Dumping will be prohibited.

Donald Williams, to construct an accessory building prior to construction of a principal building on Maryville Road south of Route 203.

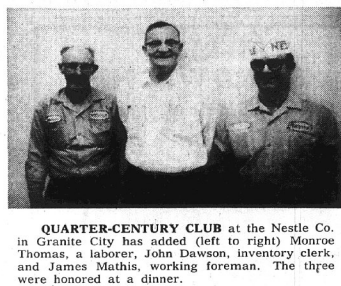

Anna M. Eberhart, owner, and Leslie Shelton, purchaser, to operate a heating, air conditioning and remodeling business on Route 3 about a quarter mile north of the I-270 overpass at Ruelle, owner, and John Ruelle, occupant of a mobile home, to place a mobile home on Sand Prairie Lane off Route 111.

Ulys Hoult, owner, and Alice Hoult, occupant of a mobile home, to place a mobile home at 205 Harrison St., Eagle Park Acres.

Held over was the petition of Bobby J. and Patricia J. Jackson, owners and occupants of a mobile home, to place a mobile home at 8616 Fairway Blvd., State Park Place.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD
Thurs., Jan. 14, 1971 Page 5

Garage Door Damaged

Larry J. Druhe, 2237 Lee Ave., reported at 7:40 a.m. Wednesday that a hit and run driver headed south in the alley at the rear of Druhe's home, apparently slid on ice and damaged the door to his garage.

Car Crash Victim Aided By Granite City Woman

A Granite City woman who was not afraid to become "involved," directed her common sense and skills, remembered from two decades earlier, to help save the life of a St. Louis woman injured in an auto crash earlier this week, the Press-Record learned.

Mrs. Glenis Misturak, with her husband, John, 2544 Madison Ave., were driving on Highway 40 near the Cahokia Mounds State Park entrance at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, when a head-on collision occurred between a van-type station wagon and an auto immediately in front of the Misturaks car.

Mrs. Mary Burns, a passenger in the station wagon, was pinned in the wreckage and her husband, Donald, apparently in shock, was desperately trying to pull her out of the demolished vehicle, Mrs. Misturak said. The Burns are residents of St. Louis.

The woman was bleeding profusely from a head wound, Mrs. Misturak related. "Mr. Burns was frantic, obviously in the state of shock, and was pulling at his wife trying to free her from the wreckage. She had blood covering her face and I believe he thought she was dying," Mrs. Misturak said.

"I climbed into the van and took her pulse at the temple, as her arms were pinned down. She revived somewhat and started to moan and cough blood, so I elevated her head to stop her choking. When Mr. Burns was assured she was still alive he calmed down and soon afterward the ambulance and state police arrived."

Mrs. Misturak had 1 1/2 years of nurses training 22 years ago, she noted. She is presently enrolled in adult classes in industrial management at Southern Illinois University-Southern campus.

Mrs. Burns suffered a leg fracture, facial and head lacerations and other injuries. She was taken to St. Mary's Hospital in East St. Louis, where her condition is reported "fairly good." Her husband was treated for minor injuries and released.

Mr. Misturak summoned the ambulance from a public phone a short distance away and also notified relatives of the Burns couple about the accident, his wife said.

Cougar Cagers Host Rivermen on Saturday

"We'll play our normal game," Jim Dudley, coach of the Southern Illinois University - Southwest basketball team, says. The Cougars have won 10 and lost only two basketball games. Dudley's charges will play the University of Missouri, St. Louis, Rivermen, Saturday night on the Cougars' home court at Edwardsville High School. Tip-off time is 8:15. UMSL has a record of 8 and 7.

Asked if he planned any special tactics against UMSL, a team which has beaten the Cougars six straight over 3½ seasons, including a 97-75 shellacking in the SIU-SW season opener at the St. Louis Arena, the young coach replied, "No, I repeat, we'll play our normal game. I'll tell the players, or remind them once again, that if they perform like they have in building our 10-2 record to this point, then they can beat Missouri."

Despite a determined grin which hid his own tension about Saturday's contest, he added, "If we execute like I know they can, we can win this game as simple as that."

In this week's (Tuesday) warm-up game against Harris Teachers College in St. Louis, the Cougars romped to a 112-78 victory. It was the fifth time this season that Dudley's charges have scored more than 100 points. Biggest improvement, however, is the Cougar defense. In the last three games, the Cougar defense has held the opposition to an average of 74 points per game, a spread of 26 points per game.

"Twelve-game statistics show a sophomore guard Denny Thorneburg and senior guard Rich Essington in almost a dead heat for scoring honors. Thorneburg is in front with a 20.58 game average, while Essington trails with 19.75. At the free throw line, it's all Thorneburg who is shooting a sensational 91.0, making 71 out of 78 attempts.

In the Harris game, Thorneburg, one of the nation's leading college sharpshooters from the charity stripe, finally missed a shot after making 20 in a row. He was eight-out-of-nine during the contest.

Glazed Streets Cause Rash of Auto Accidents

Police reported a rash of auto accidents, mostly minor and not involving injuries to drivers or passengers, occurred Tuesday in Granite City as an icy glaze covered the streets and sidewalks.

A collision at 18th and Benton streets at 11:30 a.m. Tuesday, involved vehicles operated by Frank L. Bladick, 2200 W. 23rd St., and Pat R. Martin, 2074 Fourteenth St.

Police said Mrs. Martin, unable to control her car on the icy surface, crossed the center of the intersection and collided with Bladick's auto.

When he applied his brakes while driving in the 2200 block of Lee Avenue at 5:50 p.m. Tuesday, Joe R. DeBruce, 2508 State Street, slid into a vehicle parked at the curb belonging to Clarence Lementavich, 1630 E. 23rd St.

Vehicles operated by Charles W. Wilson, 818 Twenty-fourth St., and Marvin Lee Walls, St. Louis, collided at 12:35 p.m. Tuesday, when an unidentified auto began sliding sideways in front of the two motorists who were driving east on 20th street near Lee Avenue.

Rear-End Collision
A rear-end collision occurred at 1:05 p.m. Tuesday at Niedringhaus Avenue and Popular Street. A vehicle operated by Alan Albright, Granite City Army Depot, slid into an auto driven by Joe Jones of East St. Louis, who was halted at a stop sign.

A car owned by William Freeman, 2130 Grand Avenue, parked in the 2100 block of Grand Avenue at 1:20 p.m. Tuesday, was struck by an auto operated by Donna E. Mendoza, 1926 Benton St., who lost control of her north-bound vehicle, police said.

Two autos traveling in opposite directions in the 2500 block of East 27th St., collided Tuesday afternoon. Drivers were listed as Patricia J. Mink, 2301 Lee Avenue, and Lena H. Graham, 2812 E. 27th St.

Head-on Collision
The auto of Irven E. Barr, 802 Grand Ave., Madison, slid on the icy pavement at 5:20 p.m. Tuesday and collided with the auto of Frank Kierulff, 810 Washington Ave., northbound in front of his home. The driver's door of Kierulff's car was damaged extensively and minor damage to Barr's vehicle was reported.

An auto driven by Beverly Ann Reynolds, St. Louis, slid off the road and struck the auto of LaDonna Whitner, 812 Jackson St., Madison, which was in a ditch during icy conditions at noon Tuesday on the new exchange to Route 157.

The auto of Claude A. Robinson, Brooklyn, northbound on Fourth Street in Venice, slipped on the icy pavement and crossed into the southbound lane, colliding with the rear of the southbound auto of Madison Garrett, 1916 Douglas St., Venice just north of Wiggins highway railroad.

Tables Block Road
Not only were icy pavements a problem for Mrs. Mary Heagy, 2801 Grand Ave., at 8 p.m. Tuesday, but pranksters placed two redwood picnic tables in the roadway in the 2900 block of State Street, which the motorists struck when her car brakes failed to respond on the slippery surface.

The impact splintered one of the tables which are the property of the Granite City Park District, police said.

As he made a left turn from Lincoln Avenue into Hull Street at 4:35 p.m. Tuesday, an auto operated by James L. Unger, 233 Dale Ave., slid into a parked car owned by Edward McKinney, 2301 Lincoln Ave. Backing from a parking space in the Shasta Beverage firm lot on Route 3, at 4:11 p.m. Tuesday, the auto of Thomas A. Green, 3709 Ruth Drive, struck a parked car owned by Ross Smiles, 2743 Myrtle Ave.

the burden of responsibility will fall in the event a nuclear or natural disaster happens in Granite City.

Coordination Vital
Police Chief Ronald Veizer, seated on one side of a long table a telephone in his hand, confers with his partner, Auxiliary Police Chief John Becker, while both scrutinize a large scale map of Granite City as a plotter attaches magnetic objects representing police mobile units.

Veizer looks slightly worried as emergency situations pile up and his available men and mobile units decrease rapidly.

Tally Heubner, director of buildings and grounds, told the board. Total cost of the new addition is not to exceed $122,120.

Drawing of a contract with the architectural firm of Gabriel & Dulgeroff, which was in charge of the Lake project, was authorized by the board so the architects can proceed with the design.

The architects said their fee would be 7 1/2% for the first $100,000 cost and 7 1/4% for the amount over $100,000.

One variation in the plans from that Lake School will be the inclusion of a larger classroom to be used for physical education and would be without windows or a ceiling, Heubner said.

High School Conditions
A preliminary report from R. W. MacDermott & Associates on the structural condition of the high school auditorium, which was gutted by fire, showed that demolition work was completed over the Christmas holidays by the G. H. Sternberg Co. H. Sternberg Co.

But a preliminary inspection showed some damage and suspected deficiencies which will require laboratory tests and analysis, the report showed.

Heubner reported that the new roof for the auditorium has been installed and the second floor corridor has been opened temporarily for student traffic.

"Our immediate problem is to restore the guidance office, classrooms and principal's office" on an emergency basis, he added.

The board employed Gabriel & Dulgeroff to draw specifications for the work at a cost estimated at $27,665, with professional fees on an hourly basis or on the basis of 8%.

Natural Gas Available
Heubner also informed the board that Illinois Power Co. will provide some natural gas for the new elementary school under construction at the Shaefer site. The utility previously refused as natural gas became short of supply and a priority system was established.

"We were informed that due to peak shaving," the mixture of natural gas and propane, fact, when assistance from outside sources would be nonexistent . . . when a community must rely solely on its own resources . . . the skill and knowledge of its own citizens and the materials available in the area, Dr. Kennedy explained.

At the conclusion of today's exercise, a critique was conducted by Granite City Civil Defense Director Victor H. Koenig.

The EOST program was presented here under the auspices of the Department of the Army, Division of Civil Defense, Region 4; the Illinois Civil Defense Agency; and the University of Illinois, Division of University Extension services.

Driver Charged
Clarence L. Hand, 43, of 1912 Rhodes St., Madison, was arrested in the 100 block of Broadway in Venice and was charged with failing to stop for two stop signs. He was released to appear at 10 a.m. Feb. 17 in court at Madison.

School Board Authorizes Addition to Wilson School

The Granite City Board of Education authorized the school administration to proceed with plans to construct an addition to Wilson School for special education purposes during a meeting Monday night.

The building will be basically like the special education addition constructed last spring and summer at Lake School, a six-room structure costing a total of $116,000.

Projected cost for construction of the Wilson addition is $113,000, and architectural fees from 7 1/2% to 7 1/4% would be added, Tally Heubner, director of buildings and grounds, told the board. Total cost of the new addition is not to exceed $122,120.

Jaycees Seek Nominations For 1970 Award Honors

Nominations of candidates for the Granite City Jaycees' 1970 Distinguished Service Award and Outstanding Young Educator Award are being accepted by the young men's service club, it was announced today by Ronald Benhall, Jaycee project chairman.

The awards, conferred annually on exceptional young men in the community, will be presented at the Jaycees' "DASA-OYE" banquet, tentatively set for Feb. 18, at the Rose Bowl restaurant.

To be eligible for the DSA honor, candidates must be young men 35 years of age or younger. Qualifications of nominees will be judged by a special committee of local citizens who are now over the age of 35 years, Benhall explained.

Nominees for the OYE Award may be young men or women of the same age level. The names of candidates should be submitted to the Granite City Jaycees, Post Office Box 3, Granite City. Nominees need not be members of the Jaycee organization, Benhall stressed.

The course teaches proper and safe handling of all types of boats, seamanship, aids to navigation, government regulations, first aid and other topics of interest to boaters. More than 1 million men and women have taken the course which is prepared by the United States Power Squadrons. About 12 evening lectures are planned at the high school. Those interested in enrolling in the free course may call 1-314-436-4603 for further information.

Hit-Run Damage

The left side of the auto of Louis J. Bojowski, 1028 Iowa St., Madison, was damaged when the car was struck by a hit and run motorist Monday night or early Tuesday morning while parked in front of her home. Police are looking for a white car with green paint on it, at least one broken headlight and a missing chrome piece.

District Governor of Rotary Visits Madison

Rotary District Governor Lamont Heidinger, Edwardsville, visited the Madison Rotary Club Wednesday noon during his regular meeting at the Madison Recreation Center, Seventh and Lee Streets, and reviewed activities of the club in a brief conference following the program. Rev. Don Bogue, pastor of the United Methodist Church of Madison presented a program of slides in connection with his work at Ahmednagar College located in Ahmednagar, India.

He also said that India is a very religious country and has a multitude of various religions. The club voted to send a letter of condolence to Dr. Stanley Howlett, a member of the club, whose daughter was killed in a traffic accident Monday.

They also voted to send a check to the Diane Howell Memorial Library fund being established at the True Light Baptist Church, 2838 Dixon, St. Louis, where Dr. Howlett is pastor.

Next week's program will be presented by Wilbur Iran, district Boy Scout leader, who will discuss the Explorer scout program.

Treatment Projects To Total $22 Million

Construction totaling $22.5 million, made possible by a $12 million federal grant, will begin soon in 19 downstate sewage treatment plants, according to D. B. Morton, chief of the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency. The money was released this month by the Federal Environmental Protection Agency after federal approval of the state's water pollution control program.

Federal grants for Illinois sewage improvements have increased by 20-25 per cent since passage of Gov. Ogilvie's $750 million Anti-Pollution Bond Referendum. Morton said the state is eligible for $428,000 by the end of the current fiscal year. Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie said 37 projects, including 18 now under way in the Metropolitan Sanitary District of Greater Chicago, have been cited by the federal government.

With State Funds

Ogilvie to Press for Use of Private Colleges to Meet Enrollment Growth

Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie has announced that a major effort will be made to assist the enrollment of students in the state's private colleges.

The alternatives, the governor told a news conference at Chicago are more expensive and would involve either expanding present state colleges and universities or constructing expensive new colleges.

Ogilvie said most state institutions have reached the maximum size that is "manageable." State Rep. George M. Burditt of La Grange, appearing with Ogilvie, said the solution is to use the private and estimated 20,000-student excess capacity of private colleges. Burditt declared: "Not one private college in Illinois expects to be in the black in 1971—and this includes all the major universities."

"As a group, they are in a desperate, emergency situation. State-supported schools are 'bursting at the seams,' said Ogilvie. "Yet there are no places available for 10,000 students in private colleges."

"Spending a substantial amount of state funds to let the students we cannot accommodate use these private facilities will avoid the far more costly course of building new public colleges."

Burditt added: "We have an obligation to help young people get educated, and we also have an obligation to save the taxpayers money by making both the private and the public college systems work more efficiently."

Part of State Aid. "Establishing principles of financial accountability and disclosure is desirable and would doubtless be a part of the final plans for state aid."

Burditt said the difference in cost to students between attending private or public colleges is approximately $1,400 a year. "Any way we can find to narrow the gap will aid both our college systems, help students, and reduce the cost to taxpayers," he continued.

Several vehicles for providing aid will be explored, said Ogilvie. They include:

—Contracting directly with private colleges to take students who might otherwise have to attend state institutions.

—Using the bonding power of the Illinois Higher Education Facilities Authority (similar to the Illinois Building Authority) to ease the financial difficulties of private schools.

—Granting aid to private colleges to support and encourage the enrollment of students.

—Increasing the use of state scholarship funds, which permit students to attend the Illinois college of their choice—whether public or private. Burditt said $110 million in aid has already been provided under the state scholarship system.

To Prepare Bill. Private school representatives will join Burditt and state officials on a committee to draw up legislation, Ogilvie said.

Also present for the meeting with the governor were: Father John Cortelyou, president of De Paul University; Dr. Sharkey Umbeck, president of Knox College; Kenneth V. Zwerner, president of the board of Northwestern University; Melvin Tracht, vice-president of Illinois Institute of Technology; Joseph E. Sheehan, trustee of Elmhurst College; Robert Murphy, chairman of the board of Knox College; Alban Weber, executive director of the Illinois Federation of Independent Colleges and Universities; Dr. Haldon A. Leedy, chairman of the state authority and development director of North Central College; and George B. Pletsch, trustee of Millikin University, Decatur.

Ogilvie said a "substantial" appropriation to aid students in private colleges will be included in the new state budget.

GASP Glass Drive is Scheduled Saturday. The Group Against Society's Pollution (GASP) and Explorer's Post 60 will sponsor a glass drive Saturday, Jan. 16, from 8 a.m. until noon. Glass will be collected in the front parking lot at the Granite City High School.

A paper drive also will be held on Jan. 30. Paper can be deposited in the rear parking lot on that day. Persons wishing to have glass or paper picked up at their homes should call Maury Daley, 876-1064.

President Appoints 9 To Postal Board

The President has announced recess appointments of nine persons to serve as the Board of Governors of the U. S. Postal Service. The President's nominations for the board were submitted to the Senate on Sept. 25. Under recess appointment, the following persons will serve on the Board until the end of the first session of the 92nd Congress:

Frederick R. Kappel of Bronxville, N. Y., former chairman of the board of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., and chairman of the President's Commission on Postal Organization.

Andrew D. Holt of Knoxville, Tenn., recently retired president of the University of Tennessee.

George E. Johnson of Chicago, founder, president and chief executive officer of Johnson Products Company.

T. Lassen of Conway, Miss., deputy postmaster general for the past two years, previously president of the American Can Company of New York.

Patrick E. Haggerty of Dallas, Tex., chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Texas Instruments.

M. A. Wright of Houston, Tex., chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Humble Oil and Refining Company.

Crocker Nevins of New York City, chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Marine Midland Grace Trust Co. of New York.

Charles H. Coddling Jr., of Foraker, Okla., rancher and owner of Coddling Resources.

Theodore W. Braun of Los Angeles, Calif., chairman of the board of Braun and Company.

The Postmaster General, who will be named by the governor, will serve as the 10th member of the Board. These ten members will in turn name a deputy postmaster general who will serve as the 11th board member. The 11 members will select a chairman from among themselves.

The board of governors was created by the Postal Reorganization Act of 1970. Within one year of the August 12th enactment, the board is authorized to designate a time for the transfer of all powers and duties presently exercised by the Post Office Department to the new Postal Service.

The board of governors will oversee all practices and procedures in the Postal Service, including the direction and control of expenditures and service and a review of the decisions of the Postal Rate Commission.

Announce Judges for Symphony Competition

Judges for the 1971 St. Louis Symphony Competition Week-end for young musicians have been announced by the Women's Association of the St. Louis Symphony Society, which sponsors the event.

Weekend is divided into two days of auditions, Friday, Feb. 5, and Saturday, Feb. 6, at Powell Symphony Hall.

Judges of Friday's Aspen Scholarship Contest will award two scholarships, one for a string and one for wind instruments, to the Summer Music School, Aspen, Colorado. Judges for this competition are Leonard Slatkin, Assistant Conductor of the Saint Louis Symphony Orchestra; Max Reger, principal viola; John Slatkin, principal violin; and John Covelli, conducting fellow of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra.

In the piano division, Ronald Armit, assistant professor of music at the University of Missouri at St. Louis, and Kenneth B. Summer High School choir director, in the voice division; Ronald Patterson, assistant concertmaster of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, and Takao Sugitani, second assistant concertmaster, in the string division; Richard Woodhams, principal oboe, and Bernard Weiss, principal trombone, in the wind instrument division.

Mrs. E. Daniel Liberman will be accompanist for both competitions.

The deadline for submitting applications for the St. Louis Symphony Competition Week-end is January 22. Application forms and additional information can be obtained by writing to Box 12574, St. Louis, Missouri, 63141, or calling (314) 434-5828.

Ainad Shrine to Hold Annual Meet, Election Friday

The 8,000 members of Ainad Temple, Ancient Arabic Nobles of the Shrine, will hold their annual meeting and election Friday at the Mosque in East St. Louis. A 6 p.m. dinner will precede a Brass Band Concert starting at 7:15. The annual meeting will start at 8 p.m. with the election starting at 9 p.m.

Illustrious Potentate Edward G. Maag, an East St. Louis Attorney, has served Ainad for the past 12 months of his elected term, as well as four months prior when Jr. Past Potentate Harry I. Bise was transferred to New Hampshire before his term expired.

Ainad hosts of only chartered Hospital Unit in Shrine-dom, and their operation is being copied by many other temples. More than $5,000 was raised this past year in the "Bonds for Braces" program which Araid sponsors for the Shriner's Hospital for Crippled Children. This is a method of buying government bonds in the name of the Hospital, then when the bonds mature, the Hospital gets the money. This is one of the ways of the Nobles to help raise the $30 million it takes each year to run the 19 Burns Institutes.

Mr. Schweighauser joined Laclede Steel Co. in the accounting department in 1927. He was works auditor at the Alto steel works until 1940 when he was promoted to assistant general auditor for the company with offices in the corporate headquarters, St. Louis.

On July 1, 1947, he was named Laclede's manager of Industrial Relations and served in that capacity until he was elected vice-president on Jan. 31, 1964. He was elected assistant secretary in 1966.

Widely known in the Industrial Relations profession, Schweighauser has been a member of the American Iron and Steel Institute serving on the Industrial Relations and Public Relations Committees since 1945. He is a past president of the St. Louis Chapter National Association of Accountants, a long time member of the Illinois Manufacturers' Association, Industrial Relations Committee and has served as chairman of the Executive Committee of the Southern Illinois Division, IMA.

He is a past president of the Manufacturers' Association of the Tri-Cities, a member of the Industrial Relations Club of St. Louis, the Industrial Relations Research Association, the National Industrial Conference Board, the Regional Industrial Development Corporation and the Stuart Cameron McLeod Society (Honorary National Association of Manufacturers).

Born in Morrison, Mo., Mr. Schweighauser was a graduate of the Central Wesleyan Academy of Missouri and attended Washington University, St. Louis.

He and his wife, Julia Bezdol Schweighauser, presently reside in St. Louis County but are in the process of completing a new home in Hermann, Mo. They plan to move into their new home during the spring.

Rector L. Harper Dies Suddenly at Age 68. Rector Larry Harper, 68, of 1124 Reynolds St., Madison, was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Tuesday at 6:10 p.m.

Born in Maynard, Ark., he had lived in the Quad-City area for the past 43 years.

Mr. Harper was retired from Granite City Steel Co. where he worked as a watchman 16 years. He was a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

He is survived by five sons: Jack, Charles, Robert, and Howard all of Granite City, and Rector E. Harper of Norfolk, Va.; three daughters: Mrs. Eldon (Pat) Jackson and Miss Janet Harper, both of Granite City, and Mrs. Kenneth (Marie) Erickson of Dallas, Tex.

He also leaves three sisters: Mrs. Sarah Barnes of Granite City, Mrs. Lora Creek of Carbondale, and Mrs. Lena Reynolds of Peach Orchard, Ark.

His brothers Dr. Thomas H. Harper of Monett, Ark., and Wayland Harper of Maury City, Tenn., and ten grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

13 Injured in Falls On Glazed Sidewalks. Motorists were not the only victims of the icy weather. At least 13 people were injured in falls on sidewalks caused by ice.

Many persons reported falling, with 10 victims treated in the emergency room at St. Elizabeth hospital for injuries resulting from encounters with the icy streets.

Admitted at the hospital for observation and treatment were Steve Woodford, 65, of 261 Logan Ave., who injured his right hip in a fall on ice at 6:05 p.m. Tuesday.

Also admitted was Miss Linda Lipe, 20, of 10 Fontainebleau, who struck the back of her head when she slipped on ice. She suffered a hematoma to the head, injured her left hip and underwent x-rays of the skull.

Frank Bartok, 38, of 2166a Washington Ave., who apparently fell on ice, striking his head, was found lying on the sidewalk on Washington Avenue by a passerby who summoned an ambulance at 3 p.m. Tuesday.

Bartok had six sutures taken in a scalp laceration, underwent x-rays and was released from St. Elizabeth Hospital a short time later.

sold; backed Campbell in a bid for the post two years ago and succeeded in unseating Tolar. Tolar made an unsuccessful "behind-the-scenes" bid for the chair in January last year, but finally went along with reelection of Campbell by acclamation when Duff and Ebersoldt continued to support Campbell.

Because of the board division in the current chairmanship fight, Duff and Tolar have boycotted all meetings called by Campbell as chairman. As a result, the district is unable to adopt its annual operating budget and tax levy.

Failure to pass the tax levy blocks the sale of anticipation warrants to raise funds for operating purposes. The board of deficit financing used by the levee district throughout most of its financially turbulent history. Under state statutes, the district must adopt a tentative budget in its January meeting. The budget then must return to public inspection for 30 days.

After expiration of the inspection period, the levee board must pass the annual tax levy. It also must remain on file ten days before the district can authorize anticipation warrants which are sold to banks as a form of borrowing against taxes that will be collected later this year.

In view of the district's present financial condition, there is little hope of raising sufficient funds to renew operations until at least three of the trustees meet in an official session and adopt a budget and, later, the tax levy.

The budget was scheduled for adoption in the regular meeting set Wednesday, Jan. 6, but neither Tolar nor Duff would attend the session. The meeting was recessed and rescheduled for last Monday. Tolar and Duff failed to appear at this session. The same situation was repeated yesterday.

Another attempt to hold a meeting, at least for the purpose of approving the budget, will be made tomorrow. Campbell issued a call setting that meeting immediately after it became apparent that neither Duff nor Tolar was going to appear at yesterday's session.

The district's financial records show that the levee district began the month of December, the final month of its 1970 fiscal year, with a balance of $16,203. During the month, receipts amounted to $96,290, to bring total available income for December to $112,493.

But, records also show, $54,000 of the December "receipts" represented transfers of $15,000 and $39,000 from the district's accumulated account, while another $11,000 represented a transfer from the Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund.

Other receipts included $25,000 in distribution of 1969 taxes col-

Billion Dollars Coming July 3-4

A "billion dollar exhibit" will be a feature of a coin show to be presented by the Land of Lincoln Coin Club on July 3 and 4. It was announced today by Exhibit Chairman Harry J. Fichte.

Fichte received confirmation of the exhibit from the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, U. S. Treasury Department.

Featured will be the $100,000 gold certificate, Series 1934, largest denomination of paper currency ever authorized to be printed.

Gold certificates of the 1934 series in $100, $10,000, $10,000,000 and $100,000,000 denominations are issued only to Federal Reserve Banks, against an equal amount of gold bullion held by the Treasury Department for certain credits established between the Treasurer of the United States and the banks.

A staff member from the Bureau of Engraving and Printing will be on hand to provide information to the visiting public and interested numismatists.

lected by the Madison County treasurer from Quad-City area taxpayers.

Expenditures approved during December totaled $111,908, of which $100,000 were in payrolls. These included $31,819 in wages for the last half of November, and $68,450 for the full month of December. Records show only a partial payment of $10,997 was made on November Claims. A special bill of $841 on which suit was being threatened, also was paid.

This left a balance of $585 as of Jan. 1. The levee district, it was learned yesterday, still has $36,000 remaining in anticipatory power under last year's ordinance, and also is expecting a "disaster" aid allocation of $95,000 from the federal government as reimbursement for repairs made by the district on sewers damaged in flash floods during July, 1970.

It has no further tax funds coming from either St. Clair or Madison county until collection of 1970 taxes is begun next summer. Therefore it will have to depend entirely upon the sale of anticipation warrants to finance the major part of its operations until tax funds become available.

If the board is able to muster a quorum tomorrow morning, it could avert the shutdown temporarily by approval of tax anticipation for the remaining $38,000 under the 1970 financing ordinance. However, this is enough to meet only about two weeks' payroll under normal operations.

GC Optometrists Offer Papers at Conference

Granite City optometrists were among those presenting papers at the annual St. Louis Visual Training Conference held during the weekend. The conference was sponsored by the Optometric Extension Program, an international organization for continuing education and research in vision.

Dr. Austin Tashma, with offices at 1506 Johnson Road presented a paper entitled "Notes on Visual Training," and Dr. Leo A. Roman, 2775 Madison Avenue, president of the Southwestern Illinois Optometric Society, read a paper, "An Original Procedure Combining the Trans-Binocular Interactor and the Fusion Aider to Help Change Abnormal Neurological Adaptation."

A total of 20 papers were presented at the conference at which Dr. A. M. Steffington, director of education of the extension program, served as moderator. An increasing awareness of other disciplines as to what Optometry has to offer was a highlight of the conference.

New Ultimatum On $15 Million In Road Jobs

Nine highway construction projects in Madison and St. Clair counties—involving costs totaling $15 million—again face a threat of suspension unless more minority workers are employed.

The new ultimatum came yesterday from officials of the Illinois Division of Highways on the heels of an announcement earlier this week that most highway construction jobs were in compliance with hiring guidelines and were not likely to be shut down.

The nine jobs now in question face suspension next Wednesday, according to Harold Gogel, assistant engineer for District 8 of the highway division, headquartered at French Village. Five of the projects included in the new ultimatum were involved in the threatened shutdowns last week.

Under a plan developed by Illinois Governor Richard B. Ogilvie to end a two-year government freeze on federal highway funds—which held up an estimated $100 million in highway work—a ratio of one minority trainee to each four journeymen must be employed in each of six construction crafts.

Richard H. Goltzman, chief district highway engineer, said District 8 officials earlier this week that a new hiring sequence of one trainee to each two journeymen has been initiated.

Meatcutters Picketing Tarpoff Packing Firm

A dispute between members of Meatcutters' Local 545 and the Tarpoff Packing Co., 1429 Edwardsville Road, relating to an 11-week lay-off of workers, resulted in a picket line outside the local plant this week.

An unofficial spokesman for the union said that picketing began Monday after it was learned a "load of beef from Iowa was received at the plant last week." Another truck load was received the following week.

The meat packing firm employs eight local 545 members who were laid off 11 weeks ago, two weeks prior to renewal of a wage contract with the Meatcutters' Union. Lack of work was the initial reason given by the plant owners for the layoff, the caller said.

The Grind For the average man a week consists of five days of work and two days of rest.

Blast Damages Locker Door at High School

An explosion caused apparently by one or more large "cherry bomb" firecrackers exploded in locker number 437, located on the second floor in the foreign language wing of Granite City High School, between the second and third period class changes at 10:20 a.m. Wednesday.

The force of the blast was strong enough to blow the locker door off. Chief of Police Ron Veizer and Asst. Chief of Police George Teller investigated the incident and found evidence of the firecrackers.

Long Lake Rescue

An hour earlier three Long Lake area teenagers saved the life of an eight-year-old girl, who fell through the ice there, an ice woman who fell in trying to help her.

Tim Patterson, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Patterson, 4241 Lake Drive, Jim Abel, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Abel, 4115 Breckenridge Lane, and Rick Vanscoy, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Vanscoy, 4248 Lake Drive, were playing ice hockey behind the Vanscoy house when they heard the girl scream.

Mrs. Martha Hillard, No. 3 East Gale Drive, attempted to help the girl but also went through the ice. The teenagers lay down and used their hockey sticks as reach poles.

Mrs. Hillard grabbed the stick with one end and held onto the girl with the other hand as they were pulled to safety by the boys.

Charged in RR Theft Of Tires, Wheel

Levell Johnson, 18, of 209 Booker St., Eagle Park Acres, was arrested at 11:20 a.m. yesterday at the Moto Service Station, Highway 203, Madison, where he was employed, on a warrant charging theft over $150.

Police said Johnson is a suspect in the theft of spare tires and wheels from new autos on a Terminal Railroad train in the Madison yards Monday.

With Johnson's permission, police searched his car and found four spare tires and wheels and a black jacket with a pair of pliers and two wrenches in its pocket in the car trunk, authorities said.

Armed Robbers Get $488; Three Burglaries in Area

An armed robbery in which bandits obtained $488 and three burglaries were among crimes reported to Quad-City authorities since Monday.

Two bandits escaped with $488 in an armed robbery at the Burger Chef Restaurant, 2642 Madison Ave., at 11:10 p.m. Monday.

Randy Higgins, a clerk, reported that two men ordered a soda and sat in a corner booth. They were unnoticed as they entered the office.

They approached Higgins and another clerk, Max Bomer, and a dark-haired man displayed a .22 caliber revolver, ordering them "to put the money in a bag."

The men then ordered the money removed from the registers, Higgins said. The bandits left with the money in a bank deposit bag and a sack and headed north on Madison Avenue in a green auto bearing a 1971 Missouri license plate.

The one with the gun was described as being dark complexioned, 20 years old, 5 feet, 10 inches tall, 180 pounds, heavy build, with long black hair and wearing a dark coat and brown bell-bottom trousers.

The other was described as being 19 years old, 6 feet tall, medium build, 180 pounds, blond hair and sideburns and wearing a brown coat.

Lady's Watch Stolen

Mrs. Olive McColligan, 2247 State St., reported Monday that her wrist watch containing two diamonds was stolen from the front bedroom of her home.

There was no forced entry. A man attempted to cash a stolen check at Branding's Market, 2301 Delmar Ave., but fled on foot when the proprietor was calling the bank, it was reported at 2:15 p.m. Monday.

Lawrence J. Druhe, 2337 Lee Ave., reported the theft of a tool box, containing assorted tools and valued at $150, from the garage at his home, at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday. The owner said the items were stolen three months ago.

About 10 tapes were stolen from the auto of Dennis Yanousek, Collinsville, while it was parked in the 2200 block of Lee Ave., he reported at 3:05 p.m. Wednesday. The locks on the car were damaged.

Eight stereo tapes valued at $40 were stolen from the auto of Richard Duncan, Collinsville, while it was parked at 12th and Meridian streets, he reported at 8:50 p.m. Wednesday.

Wheel, Tire Taken A wheel and tire were taken from a U-Haul trailer parked overnight at Stroyoff Shell service station, Sixth Street and Madison Avenue, it was reported Monday afternoon.

Carl Justice Jr., 2426 Logan Ave., reported at 11:15 p.m. Monday that he found his 1965 auto and stole an FM radio cassette tape player, valued at $125, and seven tapes; and Pat Gould, 2212 Madison Ave., said an eight-track stereo player, worth $40, and four tapes were removed from her auto.

Levi Tartt, 1737 Olive St., reported at 2:40 p.m. Wednesday that two tires and wheels were stolen from a 1966 auto while it was parked in his garage during the night.

Nameoki to Check Status of Bond For Supervisor

A check into the status of the bond posted by Supervisor Harry Briggs of Nameoki township was requested of Township Attorney William Schooley Monday night after a fire insurance firm notified the town board by letter that Briggs' bond had not been posted with that firm.

Louis Whitsell, town clerk, said the letter created several questions since the town board last April issued a $750 check to the Springfield company for payment of premium on Briggs' bond and that a cancelled check, endorsed by that firm, is in the township files.

The letter came from Zalos & Daily Co. of Springfield which Whitsell said, is an agency of the Vernon Fire & Casualty Co., also of Springfield. Whitsell said he had written the firm to notify them of Briggs' action in payment of a $22,000 township bill, but Whitsell claims had not been authorized for payment by the board.

Names Another Firm

Whitsell told the town meeting that the insurance firm's letter said that Briggs' bond had not been posted with the firm. The letter referred the town board to another insurance company as the one carrying Briggs' bond.

"I am at a loss to explain it," Whitsell said. "We received the check to Zalos and Daily Co. in the amount of $750 for payment of the bond premium. We have the cancelled check which is endorsed on the back with the name of Vernon Fire and Casualty Co. and the name of Zalos and Daily under that name."

Briggs did not attend the town meeting Monday night. The board asked Schooley to contact the insurance firms and straighten out the bond matter. Whitsell announced during the meeting that several items of office equipment stolen in a burglary at the town hall on Highway 182 had "mysteriously reappeared" in the township office.

Finds Missing Equipment

"When I came to the office Friday night (Jan. 8) I found a photo-copy machine, a mimeograph machine and two adding machines that had been missing since the burglary last June," he said. He had talked with several township officials who were unaware of when and how the equipment was brought into the office."

The board set 7 p.m. Feb. 2 as the date of a Democratic party caucus for selection of candidates for township supervisor, and 8 p.m. on the same date for a Republican caucus. The caucuses are required by law and usually are a matter of formality. Candidates for the supervisor post file by nominating petitions rather than by caucus on party tickets.

Whitsell said he has "refiled" his petitions as candidate for supervisor of Nameoki township since talking to state legislators who told him there will be no election of assistant supervisors this year. Whitsell previously had filed on a ticket with David Huckle as a candidate for assistant supervisor.

NEW WOMEN'S CLUB ORGANIZED, ELECTS

The newly-organized Arlington Heights Women's Club met Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. Roberta Arbeiter, 59 Carla drive, for its first official meeting.

The above name was formally adopted for the club, after which officers for the coming year were elected.

Those elected were Mrs. Faye Hester, president; Mrs. Janet Davis, vice-president and Mrs. Connie Stroehde, secretary-treasurer.

It was decided that the primary functions of this club will be to provide for the children in the Arlington Heights area an annual Easter treat, a Halloween parade and a Christmas party.

Plans were discussed for raising the financial means to sponsor these events.

Mrs. Barbara Ramsey was appointed as chairman of the ways and means committee, and working with her will be Mrs. June Toorjian; Mrs. Charlene Miller, Mrs. Francis Rawden and Mrs. Mary Lou Richardson.

Hostess for the February meeting will be Mrs. Betty Bishop, 88 Shilwin drive.

After adjournment of the meeting, refreshments were served to those mentioned and to Mrs. Miriam Kelly, Lili Grisham, Sheila Shaffer, Terri Brantley, Loreta Rakowski, Lois Bradford and Jean Theodorakis.

TRAVELING BY AIR? CALL HOLIDAY SERVICE, 423-3131

Fines for Pollution Only Punitive, Air Board Told

An assessment of substantial fines against Granite City Steel Co., sought by the Illinois Pollution Control Board in the first major case of its kind in this state, would constitute only punitive action and would not offer a solution of the pollution problem here, Professor Erwin C. Hoelscher, technical secretary of the Granite City Air Pollution Control Board, told the board in its regular meeting Monday night.

Hoelscher said that large amounts of fines flowing into the state treasury would not reduce pollution, and that such fines could constitute an economic handicap in expediting the required engineering changes necessary to reduce pollution at the steel plant. The steel company is now seeking dismissal of the state proceeding.

Hoelscher said that in a discussion with Fred Prillman, an attorney for the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency, last week, he explained that the Granite City board is concerned primarily with obtaining an actual correction of the pollution problems and not with hindering the company economically in such a way as to compound the problem.

Prillman said that the local board's thinking should be focused in the records for consideration by the state board in rendering its decision, assuming a dismissal motion by Granite City Steel Jan. 7 is overruled. The dismissal motion contends that legislation creating the EPA is unconstitutional for several reasons.

To List Requirements

In other business, Hoelscher told the board that a letter will be sent soon by C. W. Klassen, director of the EPA, defining the minimum requirements which must be met before he will give his endorsement to a $26,000 federal grant to set up a full-time air pollution control program in Granite City.

Meeting in Springfield on Dec. 23, Klassen told Hoelscher that he was reluctant to endorse an application for federal funds submitted by a municipality that did not already have a full time program. Hoelscher explained that the reason for seeking federal funds was to finance such a program.

Hoelscher also said it is his impression that Klassen was short of funds for the state wide operation and is concerned that a grant to Granite City would mean a reduction in federal funds available to the state.

Members of the board commented that St. Louis County, basically a residential area with little heavy industry, receives more than $200,000 from the federal government for air pollution control, while Granite City cannot get approval of a small grant.

The board decided that the "unjust distribution" of federal funds should be brought to the attention of congressional and legislative delegates. The board chairman, Henry S. Bielecki, was directed to write appropriate letters to Congressman Melvin Price, U.S. Representative Horace Calvo and U.S. Senators Charles Percy and Adlai Stevenson III.

JOINT BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hillman, 611 Washington Ave., Sunday week, a dinner was served celebrating the birthdays of his mother, Mrs. Kathryn Baseden, and his godchild, Matthew Hillman.

The grandmother and grandson shared a decorated birthday cake and both received many gifts. A "Flintstones" theme was used.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Polach and daughter, Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wetzell, Mrs. Sheryl Evans and daughter, Kim, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Glazik, all of Granite City, and Ricky Hillman, brother of Matthew.

BIRTHDAYS OBSERVED

A meeting of the Yak Yak Club was held Monday evening at the Lee Park Recreation Center with Mrs. Dorothy Scarlett presiding.

The birthdays of Mrs. Margaret Stover and Mrs. Mary Dymas were celebrated and each received a gift from the members. Games were played and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Dymas and Mrs. Mary Guenther.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses to the above and Mesdames Beulah Sizemore, Faye Smith and a guest, Emily Adams.

The next meeting will be Jan. 25, with Mrs. Ethel Moore as hostess.

17TH ANNUAL MEETING

The 17th annual meeting of the St. Mark's Venice Township party caucus for selection of candidates for township supervisor, and 8 p.m. on the same date for a Republican caucus. The caucuses are required by law and usually are a matter of formality. Candidates for the supervisor post file by nominating petitions rather than by caucus on party tickets.

Whitsell said he has "refiled" his petitions as candidate for supervisor of Nameoki township since talking to state legislators who told him there will be no election of assistant supervisors this year. Whitsell previously had filed on a ticket with David Huckle as a candidate for assistant supervisor.

NEW WOMEN'S CLUB ORGANIZED, ELECTS

The newly-organized Arlington Heights Women's Club met Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. Roberta Arbeiter, 59 Carla drive, for its first official meeting.

The above name was formally adopted for the club, after which officers for the coming year were elected.

Those elected were Mrs. Faye Hester, president; Mrs. Janet Davis, vice-president and Mrs. Connie Stroehde, secretary-treasurer.

It was decided that the primary functions of this club will be to provide for the children in the Arlington Heights area an annual Easter treat, a Halloween parade and a Christmas party.

Plans were discussed for raising the financial means to sponsor these events.

Mrs. Barbara Ramsey was appointed as chairman of the ways and means committee, and working with her will be Mrs. June Toorjian; Mrs. Charlene Miller, Mrs. Francis Rawden and Mrs. Mary Lou Richardson.

Hostess for the February meeting will be Mrs. Betty Bishop, 88 Shilwin drive.

After adjournment of the meeting, refreshments were served to those mentioned and to Mrs. Miriam Kelly, Lili Grisham, Sheila Shaffer, Terri Brantley, Loreta Rakowski, Lois Bradford and Jean Theodorakis.

TRAVELING BY AIR? CALL HOLIDAY SERVICE, 423-3131

THE next regular meeting will be March 9.

2 Charged With Drug Possession, Forgery

Two St. Louis men were placed in the Madison County Jail yesterday afternoon after they allegedly attempted to use a counterfeit $20 bill at the toll booth of the McKinley Bridge.

Marvin Nelson, 23, a substitute school teacher in St. Louis, and Philip Stanley Bickler, 25, were arrested at 10:45 p.m. Tuesday by Venice Police at Fourth and Granville Streets after a toll collector at the bridge called officers and described the car in which the two were riding when they allegedly attempted to pass the bogus bill, police said.

When police searched the car for other bills, they found a bag of what they believe was marijuana. An analysis of the substance has not been completed.

Nelson was charged with forgery, unlawful possession of a narcotic drug and was placed under a $4,000 bond. He also was ordered held for a Missouri parole officer.

VENICE LINCOLN CENTER Starts Adult Enrollment

Registration began this week for adults wishing to attend evening classes at Venice-Lincoln Technical Center, South 4th St., Venice.

Duane Rankin, VLTIC administrator said second semester classes will get underway Tuesday, Jan. 26, with sessions held each Tuesday and Thursday from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. He urged immediate registration of interested adults due to student limitations in several courses.

All instruction offered at the Venice-Lincoln adult education center is available to the public without charge, Rankin stressed.

Courses to be presented during the second semester include Basic and General Education Development, in preparation for a high school equivalency certificate; Data Processing; Home Maintenance and Repairs; Family Living; and Shorthand, Typing and Machine Transcription. Information may be obtained by calling the VLTIC center, at 876-792.

WESTERN TOUR

Mrs. Cornelia Honnert of Madison and Mrs. Minnie Aufderheide of Granite City have returned to their homes from a 12-day tour which included attendance at the Tournament of Roses in Pasadena, Calif.

The two visited points of interest in El Paso, Tex.; Juarez, Mexico, and in California—Disneyland, Farmers' Market, Knott's Berry Farm and the Old Mission in Capistrano. Time also was spent in Las Vegas, at the Painted Desert and at the Will Rogers Shrine.

NINTH BIRTHDAY
Kimberly Ann Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Williams, observed her ninth birthday with a week-end birthday party in the Williams home. The room and table decorations were in pink.

Kimberly opened her gifts and games were played, with prizes awarded.

A pink-topped cake was served with other refreshments to Kim Howard, Terry Ledbetter, Mendi Allyn, Michelle Hall and the honoree's brother, Brett, grandmother Mrs. Bernard Boston, and Brian Boston.

'ALASKA' TOPIC OF LITERARY CLUB

The Madison Literary Club met in the home of Mrs. D. L. Kacaleff, 1301 Iowa St., during the weekend. Mrs. Harry R. Johnson, club president, called the meeting to order with the pledge of allegiance to the flag. Reports were approved and the group signed a get well card to be sent to Mrs. Roy Hill Sr. at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Members of the club reviewed their 1970 activities in preparation for a report to the club headquarters.

The program chairman, Mrs. Marion Fogle, gave a talk on Alaska. She spoke of the purchase of the territory and its history to the time when it was

'Ghosts' from Past to Speak at New Salem

Future visitors to Lincoln's New Salem will hear "ghosts" from the past as they visit the park's historic attractions. Source of the ethereal voices will be a subliminal sound system to be installed as part of the state conservation department's interpretative recreation program. Voices and other sounds common in the village during Lincoln's day will be recorded for addition through headphones.

H. Dean Campbell, assistant superintendent of parks and memorials, said sounds may be those of gears in the cogwheel during Lincoln's day will be recorded for addition through headphones.

Cost of the service, placed at "upwards of $150,000" by Campbell, will be financed by the headlens' rental fees, 30 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

Intoxicants Forbidden

By executive order, it is now unlawful to use or possess intoxicating beverages, or to be under their influence, in seven state parks: Fort Charter, Fort Kaskaskia, Fort Cavel, Lincoln, Trail Home, Spiller Woods, McHenry Dam and Edgewater.

admitted to staidness. The value of its resources for food, she noted. She also reviewed its people and their attitude toward statehood.

Roll call was responded to with facts about the new state. The hostess served refreshments from a decorated table to Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Ray Gregg, Mrs. Elizabeth Delfenbaugh, Mrs. Duff McBrien, Mrs. L. C. Harlan, Mrs. Henry Connole and Mrs. Marion Fogle.

CLASS DISCUSSIONS CORNED BEEF DINNER

Bethany Sunday School Class members of the First United Baptist Church met Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Gertrude Ashford. The meeting opened with the class song and the class aim and motto. Mrs. Ethel Stone offered prayer.

Mrs. Bernice Whitten presented the devotional, using as her topic, "Faith Pleases God." Plans were made for a corned beef and cabbage supper at the church during March. The class started a study book on Revelations.

The hostess served refreshments to Mrs. Vasta Williams, Mrs. Pauline Cory, Mrs. Hilda Jackson, Mrs. Jeanne Hutt, Mrs. Edith Stone, Mrs. Nora Birtley, Mrs. Evelyn Lee, Mrs. Gerri Stein, Mrs. Norma Richardson, Mrs. Whitten and Mrs. Virginia Brassfield.

The Feb. 8 meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Stone, 720 Madison Ave.

'TEMPTATION' TOPIC OF SHIP SHAPE CLUB

The Ship Shape Club of Take Off Pounds Sensibly met Tuesday evening at the Polish Hall. Rev. Mieszk spoke on change, "Faith Pleases God." The hostess, Mrs. Yvonne Passig, presiding. The meeting opened with the pledge to the flag and the weight pledge.

Each member was weighed and members responded to roll call with the gain or loss. Those gaining were given penalties while those not gaining were honored. Each reviewed the holidays.

Mrs. Passig read a topic, "How Dieting Can Avoid Temptation." This was discussed by the group.

Mrs. Passig was awarded the evening's prize, and others present were Mrs. Jackie Gattung, Mrs. Marie Bryant, Mrs. Geneva Hill, Mrs. Betty Allen, Mrs. Elizabeth Bucher, Mrs. Pauline Holman, Mrs. Kathy Dohmal, Mrs. Phyllis Johnson, Mrs. Thelma Black, Mrs. Lee Rogers, Mrs. Vivian Johnson, Mrs. Mary Le Krohn, Mrs. Mary Aufderheide and a new member, Mrs. Rosalie Harris.

JOLLY EIGHT DINNER

DeMolay Legion of Honor Medallions Are Presented

Melvin O. McKay and Mayor Donald W. Partney were involved with the DeMolay Legion of Honor in a public ceremony at the Belleville Masonic Temple this week.

Dr. George T. Wilkins Jr., the other James Stuart Chapter designate, was unable to be present for the conferring. He will receive the degree at a time and place to be determined later.

McKay and Dr. Wilkins, being senior members of the local DeMolay chapter are active Legion of Honor recipients. Mayor Partney is an honorary award recipient.

Other active Legion of Honor recipients were: Edward C. Kramer, Alton; Adrain E. Crossant, Collinsville; Clarence E. Schlatter, Belleville; and Ralph L. Wuest, East St. Louis.

The other honorary Legion of Honor recipients were: Roy L. McClain, Carbondale; Joseph P. Duignan, Belleville; Glenn A. Malsel, East St. Louis; and Norman H. Sailer, Christopher.

The Egyptian Preceptory Legion of Honor was in charge of the ceremony.

The installing team was composed of: Howard Leung, Belleville, grand commander; Gilbert Watson, Granite City, senior counselor; E. Ehret, Belleville, junior counselor; William South, Carbondale, herald; Norman Ackerman, Belleville, grand marshal; Barry Bruggeman, Edwardsville, assistant marshal; R. McCormick, Collinsville, grand chaplain; Everett Watson, Alton, first preceptor.

Everett Steele, Granite City, second preceptor; Carl Pinkel, Collinsville, third preceptor; William Ward, East St. Louis, fourth preceptor; Ellis Peters, Alton, fifth preceptor; Larry Ward, East St. Louis, sixth preceptor; Wayne Knecht, Belleville, seventh preceptor; Dr. Kent Carson, Belleville, soloist; and Mrs. Norman Ackerman, Belleville, organist.

The active Legion of Honor is conferred on a Senior DeMolay in recognition of or in anticipation of "a promising career of adult leadership in some field of worthwhile endeavor that serves God, country or humanity."

Recipients were given regalia consisting of a crimson sash from which is suspended a Legion of Honor medallion and a special ring with a Maltese cross to be worn on the little finger of the right hand.

The honorary Legion of Honor is conferred on a Master Mason who has performed unusually meritorious service on behalf of DeMolay. The regalia is a white cord with a regular Legion of Honor medallion suspended from it.

Active Members
Other active Legion of Honor members from the local chapter are:
William H. Mehl, Raymond Benley, Gilbert Watson, Charles A. Meyer, Randall Robertson, Thomas Studebaker, David John, John Bellcoff, William F. Buehler, Alfred H. Gehlert, Ernest E. Veith, Gene H. Young Life to Sponsor Fifth Quarter Saturday

Young Life, a local youth organization, will sponsor this year's sixth "Fifth Quarter" on Saturday immediately following the Granite City-Bellefonte basketball game.

Honoring the Granite City wrestling team, the event will be held in the fellowship hall of the First Assembly of God Church, 24th Street and Grand Avenue, and will include the usual program of two skits, a full meal and award presentations.

In a special-feature program, the women "This Is Your Life" honor will be bestowed upon an anonymous Warrior team member.

The 5th Quarter will also include a showing of a W. C. Fields movie, which will open the program.

The event is open to all teenagers who are urged to support the CHS Warriors by attending the 5th Quarter. The average attendance of this year's 5th Quarters has been 300, with a top of 500 youths present. The price will be the same as previously charged: 75c per person or $1.25 per couple.

Summer Institute Set For Science Teachers

Dates for the 12th consecutive summer institute for high school and junior high school science teachers at Eastern Illinois University are June 21-Aug. 13.

Dr. Weldon Baker, director of the institute, said objectives are to meet the subject matter needs of teachers. He said this especially applied to teachers who lack basic work in a field included in the course work they are expected to teach, who need basic work in a field related to their major field in order to do advanced work, or who need basic work in a field to round out training for supervisory work and curriculum planning.

Twelve quarter hours of credit may be earned in the National Science Foundation-supported institute. The institute is open only to science teachers who expect to continue teaching in grades 7-12. Baker said. Sixty participants will be selected.

Completed applications must be postmarked by March 1. Stipend offers will be made between March 15 and March 22. Baker said recipients would then have until April 5 to accept or decline.

Information and application forms may be obtained from Dr. Weldon Baker, NSF Director, Eastern Illinois University, Charleston, Illinois 61920.

The maximum stipend is $600 for the eight weeks. Maximum dependency allowance is $120 per dependent, up to a limit of four allowances.

Early Dismissal Set For High, Junior Highs

The high school and junior high schools will close early on Jan. 22, the close of the current semester, and Jan. 25, the opening of the new one, according to a schedule announced at a meeting of the Granite City Board of Education Monday night.

The high school and Coolidge Junior High School will dismiss classes at 1:05 p.m., and Central, Grigsby and Prather junior high schools will end at 1:30 p.m. on both dates.

Elementary schools will dismiss at the usual times on both days.

Madison Library Gets Summer Job Directory

High school seniors, college students and teachers who want summer jobs can get the latest information from the new 1971 edition of "Summer Employment Directory of the United States" just received by the Madison library.

Employers list more than 90,000 summer job openings at resorts, summer camps, national parks, summer theatres, ranches and restaurants. Applications are invited now.

Early application is a real advantage in obtaining a summer job. Those who carefully match their qualifications to the job, stress sincerity, and willingness to work will add interest to their applications.

Jobs as camp counselor in various activities provide a vast number of opportunities. In the service and entertainment fields, waitress and waiter, maid, bellman, musician in a combo, and bartender often bring heavy tips. Salaries range from $20 up (free room, board, laundry) to $2,000 (paying own living expenses).

Detailed information on specific job openings, where and how to apply is contained in "Summer Employment Directory of the United States." The 1971 edition can be purchased at $5.95 through any bookstore or from National Directory Service, 286 Ludlow Avenue, Cincinnati, Ohio 45220.

Roca Members to Sell Fish Dinners Saturday

The Roca Young Men's Club will hold a fish dinner from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Saturday, with dinners to be delivered to homes on order.

The plates will include fillet of fish, french fries, cole slaw and pie. The cost is $1.50 and tickets may be obtained from any Roca member or by phoning Gene Doyle at 876-2050. Proceeds will be used to help finance a Swedish banquet on St. Valentine's Day, Feb. 14.

Also on the schedule for the month is a dating panel Sunday at the home of Dennis Ross. The group will include all Sweethearts and special guests. Dancing lessons will be held Sunday at the home of Brad Cross, club president.

At their last meeting members were entertained with karate demonstrations by a group from Belleville Junior College.

Speech Therapy Chosen As Winter Project
Colleen Marie Robertson, 3408 Princeton Drive, has selected speech therapy as a winter term project at DePaul University, Greencastle, Ind.

She will be spending most of this month in this area working on the project. It is part of a new academic program at DePaul to give students an opportunity to do something close to their academic interests.

58'ers 4-H Club Members Plan Knitting Class

Mrs. Eva Mueller and Mrs. Harriet Bunselmeyer, leaders of the 58'ers 4-H Club, met with the girls recently at St. John's United Church of Christ on Nameoki Road.

The pledge to the Flag was read by Mrs. Joan Kamlich and Karla Hileman led the club in the 4-H Pledge.

Nancy Hamilos, secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting and called roll. The leaders announced that the knitting class will be Jan. 21 from 7:30 to 9 p.m. at the church. Mrs. Otis Hollenbeck serves as knitting instructor for the organization.

Talks were given by Patty Bado on "Express Your Personality Through Your Wardrobe," Janice Hamilos, "Storing Knitted Garments," Janice Bunselmeyer, "Fit Your Pattern," and Martha Mueller, "Planning Your Menu."

Girls giving demonstrations were Andrea Miles, "Egg Salad Sandwiches," and Brenda Wadlow, "Making Meatloaf." Joan Hollenbeck led in group singing. Recreation chairman for the evening were Crystal Andrews and Elizabeth Wilson. Refreshment committee members included Cheryl Gertsch, Janice Mueller and Mary Beth Windfield. Cookies and hot chocolate were served and favors of miniature snowmen made of marshmallows and cookies were presented to members. Cheryl Gertsch acted as emcee.

The next meeting will be Feb. 4 at the church. Other attendees were: Elana Andrews, Patty Brokaw, Ann Marie Brusati, Laura Hileman, Kim Hunt, Cheryl Gertsch, Janice Mueller, Mrs. Mueller, Peggy Smolich, Rhonda Wadlow, Marian Yevlin, Peggy Sanders, Helen Zelenka, Jean Jackson, Elaine Kayich and Nancy Weil.

Eastern Cuts Fresh Applications For Fall

Eastern Illinois University will accept no further 1971 fall quarter freshman applications except from certain scholarship recipients according to Dr. Samuel J. Taber, dean student academic services.

The university announced last Nov. 25 that a cutoff of freshman applications was imminent and "would be applied without further public notice at such time as it is judged that the number of applications is sufficient to fill the available space." The cutoff date came about a month earlier than last year.

Taber said that while curtailment of postgraduate transfer and former student applicants is not anticipated immediately, there are indications that applications in these categories are running ahead of a comparable period last year, and will likely be subject to an earlier cutoff than a year ago.

The dean said no restriction on graduate admissions is being considered at this time.

GCHS Students Second In Scholar Quiz

Granite City High School placed second on the Scholar Quiz television program on KMOX Television during the weekend.

The four students representing the school, Linda Chapman, Gregory Lux, Steve Underdollar and Phil Dorch, team captain, scored 100 points, 38 points behind Festus High School, Festus, Mo., and well ahead of East St. Louis-Lincoln High School who collected 39 points on the one-half hour program.

Stauder Heads Shrine Laymen

Ralph Stauder this week was re-elected to a second one-year term as president of the board of directors of the Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows, which is located off Highway 40 near Belleville.

Other officers and directors re-elected at the annual meeting of the perpetual members, held at the shrine this week, include George A. Wade, director of Breese, first vice-president; B. E. Adkins of Belleville, second vice-president; Peter Judyman of East St. Louis, secretary; Delmar Stein of Belleville, treasurer; and Francis Becherer, Emil Haudrich, Bernard Lengerman and Elroy Rule, all of Belleville, members of the board.

Other officers of the board are Rev. Edwin J. Guild, O.M.I., spiritual moderator; and Francis Schaefer, executive secretary.

Stauder reported on activities sponsored by the Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows, noting in particular the success of the marriage enrichment weekends for married couples, and the speakers' series, which has attracted a total of 6,577 persons to the 18 dinner meetings held since 1966.

He called attention to the Foundation's newest project, the Christmas Way of Lights, reporting that the award-winning Christmas lighting display, which was open to the public from Dec. 1 through Jan. 10, attracted more than 285,000 visitors, 40% of whom were visiting the shrine for the first time.

Recruiting Planned By Barbershoppers

The Mississippi Valley Chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Singing in America held its annual installation ceremony at the Round Table in Collinsville during the weekend. Members and their wives were called to order by the chapter president, John Galloway, who gave the invocation.

George Harwood, executive vice-president of the Illinois District, was the installing officer. He resides in Springfield. Galloway was named as "barbershopper of the year" of the chapter, the presentation being made by Gerald Lananah, last year's recipient of the award.

Presentations also were made to Ronald Raebert, Joseph Siebert and George Chapman. Raebert, of Collinsville, was recognized for his efforts as the chapter sergeant-at-arms.

Siebert was cited for attaining the highest number of points in "barbershopper of the quarter" and Chapman was honored for perfect attendance at meetings throughout the year.

Members and their wives were entertained by the Show-Me-Staters quartet from the St. Louis No. 1 Chapter. The outgoing president told those present, "We must all continue our efforts of encouraging men of good moral character to join us in lifting our voices in the harmony of the barber shop style of vocal music."

"It seems at times that the men today are afraid to admit that they enjoy singing. They don't realize that chapters, such as ours, are organized to offer them the outlet to harmonize in song with other men like ourselves. It is up to each member, and even our wives can help, to do all we can to recruit new men."

Ice-Carving Meet Set By Principia, SIU-SW

Students from Southern Illinois University-Southwestern will meet on the ice with Principia College, Saturday, Jan. 23. Hockey No. 1... an ice-carving contest.

Judging will begin on the SIU-SW campus at 4 p.m., with the final results to be announced at 8 p.m. in the University Center. The five best contestants from the semi-finals at both schools will compete for the grand prize.

Students at SIU-SW will begin semi-final competition at 9 a.m. next Thursday, and may continue carving as they wish until noon Friday, Jan. 22. At noon the judging for the semi-finals will begin to determine who will compete in the intercollegiate contest on Saturday with Principia.

Each contestant for the semi-finals will purchase a 200-pound block of ice for $6, which will serve as his entry fee. Principia College will begin carving on Friday and will continue until Saturday afternoon, when they meet at SIU-SW for the final competition. The first place award for ice-carving finals will be $100. Second place $20.

'Steppenwolf' to Play Concert at Eastern

"Steppenwolf," popular rock group, will appear in concert at 8 p.m. Jan. 30 in Lantz Gymnasium at Eastern Illinois University. Also appearing on the program as opening band will be "Ned," a six-man pop music group.

"Steppenwolf," led by singer John Kay, has gained note for music which presents critical comment on American life. Among their most popular recordings are "Born to Be Wild," "Dust" and "The Pusher," a six-minute indictment of hard drug sellers.

Diane Howlett, 18, Killed in Accident

Miss Diane Howlett, 18, of Route 3, Edwardsville, daughter of a Granite City Steel employee and a minister, suffered fatal injuries in a traffic accident Monday on Route 143 about a half mile west of Route 66.

She was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Joseph's Hospital, Highland. The accident occurred as an auto driven by her brother, Rodney, 19, collided with a car driven by Alison Hopkins, 21, of Rochester. Both vehicles had slowed for a previous accident.

Rodney Howlett was reported in fair condition at the Highland hospital.

The Girl's Father, Dr. E. Stanley Howlett, Is a Personnel Counselor at Granite City Steel

Dr. E. Stanley Howlett, is a personnel counselor at Granite City Steel Co., is pastor of the True Light Baptist Church in St. Louis and is a member of the Madison Rotary Club. Miss Howlett was a student at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern.

Friends may call from 1 to 9 p.m. at the True Light Baptist Church, 288 Dixon St., St. Louis. Services will be held at 1 p.m. Sunday at the church.

A Diane Howlett Memorial bursary is being established at the church in lieu of flowers.

Police Foll Theft Attempt, Recover Loot

Madison police recovered six auto tires and wheels removed from new cars on a Terminal Railroad train in an unsuccessful theft attempt Monday in the railroad yards at the end of Race Street.

Guards at Laclede Steel Co. called police and reported that several men were breaking into the autos on the train and taking the spare tires and wheels from the auto trunks. When police arrived the thieves fled, leaving the stolen wheels behind.

Police reported that five autos on the train were broken into by forcing window vents. A sixth car apparently was unlocked. The trunk keys were inside each car, allowing the trunks to be opened and the spare wheels removed.

Plan Commission To Rule On Parking Area

A request for rezoning property at 2138 and 2138 Grand Ave. from residential to commercial zoning for use as a parking lot will be among matters to be considered at the regular meeting of the Granite City Plan Commission this afternoon in City Hall.

The request was filed by J. E. Brewer, owner of Brewer Motors. The lots will be used for a driveway from the auto dealership to Grand Avenue and for some parking at this time. There are no plans to demolish a house at 2138 Grand Ave. The commission also will consider a request by Joyce Falkenheim for a special use permit to operate a beauty shop at 1844 Primrose Ave., which was referred back to the group by the city council.

A petition for a change of zoning by Edward W. Jones of Consolidated - Home Development, Inc., to permit construction of a single family residence at 1205 St. Paul Ave., also will come before the board at the meeting.

Regional Report - $88 Million University Operating Budget

(Illinois Metro East Industrial Development Corporation) The Illinois Board of Higher Education approved a $88.7 million operating budget for the two-campus SIU system for 1972.

The budget recommendation, which is now sent to the State Bureau of the Budget, does not contain money for the operation of the Parks College of Aeronautical Technology in Cahokia nor for the operation of a center for SIU-SW programs in the former Broadview Hotel in East St. Louis.

The board did approve $13 million for the School of Dental Medicine in Alton.

A United States District Judge has denied a Department of Justice request for a preliminary injunction designed to put carpenters back on the job with black trainees. The Department of Justice argued that union carpenters should be forced to return to a construction site at the Poplar Street Bridge and to be kept from interfering with a plan of Gov. Ogilvie's to employ blacks in road construction.

In related news, Robert Krnost, the local district highway engineer, threatened to shut down highway construction projects, including the rebuilding of Illinois Route 140, unless the road contractors hire more blacks. (The shutdown proved to be unnecessary.)

In accepting the contracts, the builders agreed to comply with the Ogilvie plan to employ more black trainees on highway construction projects. Krnost is responsible for enforcing the equal opportunity hiring plan.

The St. Louis Metropolitan Area Airport Authority has hired the Arthur D. Little Co. of Cambridge, Mass., to conduct a study to determine the environmental impact of the proposed major airport. The $76,000 study is expected to take 10 weeks to complete. Teachers move from one regional school district to another because of school administration and salaries, a study of the Regional and Urban Development program of SIU-SW reports.

The switching of school districts within this region was highest among young teachers, senior high teachers, and teachers with a master's degree.

During the last year of the study period, 1966-67, SIU-SW supplied over 30% of the teachers for Madison County and nearly 20% in St. Clair County.

Four trustees of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District filed an answer to a petition that challenges an order staying their ouster from office in the Illinois Supreme Court. The trustees, convicted on charges of misconduct in office, denied that the Appellate Court granted the stay of ouster pending appeal of their convictions. The Supreme Court will hear oral arguments in the case on Jan. 27.

In other levee news, an attorney of the Levee District filed a motion in Madison County Circuit Court asking the court to dismiss a suit seeking recovery of attorney fees paid by the district over a period of eight years.

The suit, filed by the Assistant State's Attorney of Madison County, seeks to recover more than $262,000.

A St. Clair County grand jury indictment against six members of the East St. Louis School Board was dismissed at the request of St. Clair County State's Attorney Robert Rice. The board members were charged with misconduct in office.

Rice noted in his motion for dismissal that two board members have already left office and that a civil suit has been filed asking for the removal of the board members.

A new two-year contract with American Oil Co. is being voted on by members of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union in Wood River. The contract contains a 10% wage hike over the two-year period. A new holiday is also included in the contract, which needs a majority vote of the union membership. Contract negotiations are continuing at Shell Oil and Clark Oil in Hartford.

Additional police to provide 24-hour protection for Godfrey Township in Madison County have been approved by the Godfrey Town Board. The township police, who are paid by an annual township appropriation, are in addition to the patrols provided by the Madison County sheriff.

In general area news, residents of the city of Fairview Heights will begin receiving mail addressed to Fairview Heights, Ill.; William Shreck of Illinois Power Co. is a member of the board of directors of the Illinois Metro East Corp. — has been elected president of the Collinsville Chamber of Commerce; the Granite City Warriors have been ranked as the 10th best basketball team in the state; Ben Emge has been elected chairman of the Madison County Board of Assessors; and the Hathaway Little Concert Series will open with pianist David Bates.

County Zoning Board Sets On-Site Hearings

On-site public hearings will be held Jan. 28 by the Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals on requests for variations in sign height and area requirements and for special use permits.

Four of the requests were filed by Mike Sasyk, Madison mayor, and Charles H. Short, agent for National Advertising Co., lessee, for height variations for four signs on Old Route 66 at the M&L Landfill, zoned M-2 general manufacturing, starting at 9:30 a.m.

A hearing is set for 10 a.m. on the petition of Carroll A. Tingley for a special use permit to place a mobile home in a B-2 general business district at the Midwest Motel, Interstate 270 and Route 208 North.

Another hearing will be held at 10:20 a.m. on the petition of Gerald Godin, owner, and Elizabeth Turcott, occupant of a mobile home, to place a mobile home in an R-3 one-family residence district at 818 N. Main Road.

The board also will hold a hearing at 10:30 a.m. Feb. 2 on the petition of the Morris Investment Co., by R. A. Morris, president, and Bluff Road Development Co., purchaser, on a petition for a special use permit to establish and operate a sewage treatment facility in a B-2 general business district in Edwardsville Township near By-pass 66 and the south entrance road to the Southern Illinois University - Southwest campus just below Sunset Hill.

Vadalabene Hits Ogilvie Attack In Powell Case

Governor Richard B. Ogilvie has made an issue of the handling of the estate of the late Secretary of State Paul Powell "to detract from the public the ineffective record of his past two years," State Senator Sam Vadalabene (D-Edwardsville) charged in a statement this week.

Referring to criticism directed by the governor at Dr. John S. Rendleman, chancellor of SIU-SW and executor of the Powell estate, Vadalabene said: "To legally preserve the estate of a deceased public official is a difficult task."

"If there was any wrong done in preserving the estate, it is a responsibility of the Illinois Bar Association to determine. If there is political gain sought by an opposite party, it becomes the chief executive of the state to make himself a party to it. The governor has seen fit to make the preservation of an estate an issue so as to detract from the public the ineffective record of his past two years."

Chancellor Rendleman has done a fine and honorable job and should not be castigated, but praised for the manner in which he has operated the Southwest campus of SIU."

Vegetable Growers to Hold School Jan. 20-21

A school for Vegetable Growers of southwestern Illinois and surrounding areas will be held Jan. 20 and 21 at the Roundtable Restaurant near Collinsville. The program starts at 9:30 a.m. on both days.

Chris Doll, University of Illinois, Area Adviser in Edwardsville, said the program will feature cultural management, and marketing suggestions for 1971 and future years. University of Illinois research and extension personnel will speak on diseases, insects, herbicides, fertilizers and processing.

Scouting Anniversary Set Through February

Scouting's anniversary observance will have a new look this year throughout the nation, it was announced today by Walter F. "Mick" Strange, council activities chairman for the Cahokia Mound Council.

The name has been changed. It is no longer Boy Scout week, but will be known hereafter as the Anniversary Celebration of the Boy Scouts of America.

The time has been changed also. The observance now will be held during the entire month of February.

The change will give the many scout units an opportunity to include Blue and Gold dinners, Courts of Honor and other traditional events during the Anniversary Celebration. Feb. 8 is the official birthdate of the Boy Scout movement.

This year, Feb. 8 will have additional meaning as it will serve as the kickoff date for Project SOAR (Save Our American Resources) which is the national scout good turn project.

Checklist on Adequate Anti-Crime Structure

"How Does My Community Stack Up?" is title of a new anti-crime publication prepared by the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce.

The folder contains a checklist for community self-evaluation of its criminal justice system, including police department, jails, courts, states attorney and probation programs.

Developed by the State Chamber's Committee on Respect for Law and Order in cooperation with law enforcement officials, the questionnaire is designed "to encourage local action by concerned citizens to see that the criminal justice system in their communities is properly staffed and structured to meet the challenge of crime and delinquency."

Copies of the folder are available at the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce, 20 North Wacker Drive, Chicago 60606.

University Serving Region on Airwaves

Southern Illinois University's Southwestern campus radio station WSIE-FM (88.7 on the dial) has been operating from the local campus since Sept. 4. It is oriented to the entire area, and every kind of listening audience within the station's 80-mile radius is considered in programming, according to station manager Fred Criminger. The station has been heard as far north as Duluth, Minn., as far west as Poplar Bluff, Mo.,

as far east as Effingham and as far southeast as Mount Vernon. It is heard regularly in 25 Illinois counties and five in Missouri. One of its talk shows, Parent and Child, has been accepted by National Education Radio and is heard on 438 educational stations in the U. S. Except for Criminger and two professional engineers, the station is student operated. One of its purposes, Criminger says, is to provide a practical laboratory for the radio-television academic discipline through the education and training of students preparing for the broadcasting profession.

LEFT—WSIE's transmitter tower stands 469 feet high, one and one-half miles north of I-570 and one-fourth mile west of Route 157 near the campus.

ABOVE—Earlwayne Stumph, Waterloo, interviews Richard Kayser, Edwardsville farmer, for his week-day feature entitled "Farming Today."

RIGHT—In addition to serving as production manager, Walt Bowen of Spanish Lake, Mo., does a live show daily on "Dateline."

FAR RIGHT—Lana Turner of Roxana, student worker in the station's library, checks in a record from Fred Criminger, manager of WSIE-FM.

BELOW—Keith Nabe (seated) is student manager of WSIE. John Craddock (center) is continuity director. Both are from O'Fallon. Greg McGee, of Granite City, is traffic manager.

BELOW RIGHT—In the automation room, David Weise of Florissant, Mo., disc jockey and a news announcer, programs the day's show from the program source panel.

Job's Daughters Bethel 43 Meets

Miss Lana Dalhaus, honored queen, presided Tuesday evening at a meeting of Job's Daughters, Bethel 43, at the Masonic Temple.

Those escorted and introduced were Miss Kristina Christich, junior past honored queen of the Bethel, Mrs. Nell Baskette, Bethel guardian, and Dr. E. H. Theis, associate guardian. Miss Christich was guest of honor for the evening.

The members decided at the meeting to attend the official visit of Mrs. Ruth Porter, Grand Guardian, and Howard Roeder, associate grand guardian, to Bethel 88, Wood River, Friday evening, Jan. 22.

Mrs. Vivian Blankenship, a past worthy matron of Granite Chapter 650, Order of Eastern Star, presented the Bethel with donations from the Chapter to be used in the purchase of new robes for the choir.

At the close of the meeting there were remarks by Miss Kristich, Mrs. Baskette, Dr. Theis and Miss Dalhaus.

Birthday were celebrated by Miss Cindy Tadlock, Miss Christich, and two members of her family, and Miss Pam Church and three of her family.

Refreshments were served in the dining room of the Mothers Club to 45 members and guests.

MRS. SHERMAN IS CLUB HOSTESS

Mrs. Mollie Sherman, 3152 Aubrey Ave., entertained her pinocle club Monday evening.

The winning scores were held by Mrs. Ruth Bauer, Mrs. Evelyn Thompson and Mrs. Maymie Thompson and prizes were presented to the winners.

Others present to whom refreshments were served were Mrs. Louis Mull, Mrs. Louise Kovar, Mrs. Bernice Squires and Mrs. Emma Elmore of the club, and three guests, Miss Ruth Bauer of New Port Richey, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Thompson of Brentwood, Mo.

ATTEND FUNERAL HERE

Mrs. Betty McCabe of La Mar, Calif., Mrs. Marie Hamilton, of Long Beach, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Murray of Kissimmee, Fla., who were called here the past week by the death of their father and brother, Matt A. Hadaller, 2457 Benton St., left early this week by plane for their homes.

DAV, Auxiliary Begin Memorial Day Planning

The Disabled American Veterans and Auxiliary again will sponsor a "Parade of Flags" on Memorial Day and the first meeting to plan for the event was held Monday evening at the DAV club room.

Among those attending were Ted Scrum, district commissioner of the Boy Scouts of America; Charles Bringer, Neighborhood Boy Scout Council, District 4; Mrs. Leo Ann Moran, chaplain of the VFW Auxiliary; Mrs. Pearl Ellis, junior vice commander of the VFW Auxiliary 1300; Bill Bratton, commander of the DAV; Cecil Nash, chaplain of DAV and chairman of the "Parade of Flags"; Mrs. June Scherger, commander of the DAV Auxiliary; Mrs. Irene Roelter, state DAV Auxiliary and Auxiliary chairman of the "Parade of Flags"; and Mrs. Julian Heffery, co-chairman of the parade.

Preliminary plans were formulated to make this an annual event and a greater community project, improving last year's first venture with a program.

The organizations wishing to fly flags of deceased veterans are urged to contact the chairman by calling 878-4413 or 877-0220.

Another meeting and planning session will be held at 8 p.m. March 8 in the DAV club room. All veterans organizations are urged to attend.

TEEN-AGE DEMOCRATS ELECT OFFICERS

The newly elected officers of the Granite City Teen-Age Democrats include Scott Harrison, president; Rosemarie Boyd, vice-president; Elaine North, secretary; and Jo Lynn Re mine, treasurer.

The election was held last night at a meeting in the Levee district office. Reports were made on plans for the style show to be held March 12 at Holy Trinity Hall, 1245 Madison Ave., at 7:30 p.m. The tickets at $1 may be secured by contacting Glenn Romaine at 876-9161.

The club will be honored by a visit from newly elected State Senator Sam Vadalabene at a meeting and smorgasbord dinner at the Rose Bowl Sunday evening, Jan. 31.

Reader's Comment on Powell-Innocent Until Proven Guilty

To the Editor:
I am sure that a great number of people have taken considerable interest in the recent disclosure of the estate of the late Secretary of State Paul Powell.

Certainly, many have already concluded that, once again, a cunning politician has outmaneuvered the long-suffering taxpayers.

I ask them to pause and consider a few points.
Mr. Powell left a record of honesty, devotion and loyalty to the people of Illinois. His achievements have been acclaimed by Democrats and Republicans alike.

What court has weighed the facts concerning Mr. Powell's estate? What court has judged this man to be guilty of wrongdoing? None.

Yet, in the hearts and minds of so many, Mr. Powell has been tried and convicted. Yes, our "intelligent" citizen has weighed the supporting half-truths, allegations and implications of the mass media.

Some have fallen victims to sensationalism and bias of "reputable" newspapers and have conveyed their verdict to even less-informed friends.

Has the due process of the courts of justice given way to the pronouncements of the newspapers and television?
Another point of reflection is the favorable political position in which Governor Ogilvie finds himself. A shrewd politician seizes upon "weaknesses," whether real or imaginary, in his position.

Already, the Republican party has gained a great deal in recapturing the hundreds of patronage jobs under the Secretary of State's office, the importance of which makes its true mark at the polls.
Imagine the consequences of exposing a "scandal," and consider the tarnished reputation every Democratic candidate must bear through guilt by association—guilt without basis.

To say that Mr. Powell is completely innocent of wrongdoing would be to contradict my whole point. My judgment is reserved until facts are established impartially without sentimentality, twisted rhetoric and sensationalism.

To insure public faith in the financial affairs of our elected officials, I endorse a fair investigation of the Powell estate.

Yet, let me end by emphasizing this point:
Let us not drag Mr. Powell's distinguished record of public service through the mud with out being made fully aware of the facts.

We must recognize the political undertones of this whole incident, and realize their importance.

Finally, we should remember one basic premise on which our laws are built: A man is considered innocent until proven guilty.

Helicopter Ambulance Service Operated by State Police Being Sought by Hospital Association

(Illinois Hospital Association)
The membership of the Illinois Hospital Association, an organization of 300 Illinois hospitals, has approved several program priorities for 1971 which, when implemented, will bring significant changes to the Illinois health care delivery system.

The Association seeks:
1. A system of state controls of all major hospital development and expansion projects, designed to prevent any economic waste that results from overbuilding and wasteful duplication of specialized hospital services, which in turn can produce expensive overuse of health insurance benefits.

2. Changes in the basis for paying hospitals by "third party" purchasers, governmental and voluntary, which would shift costs to charges that are approved in advance by impartial "community rate review boards."

The rate review boards would evaluate the equity of the charge schedules as they relate to the actual costs of rendering the service.

3. The development of a statewide "system" for rendering emergency services in Illinois that includes the designation of emergency care centers with "identified high level capability" to treat specialized kinds of emergencies (burn, serious highway accident, poisoning, etc., victims).

Other essential ingredients in this "system" would be a statewide emergency shortwave radio network that would link all hospitals having public authorities with emergency care responsibilities (police, fire, civil defense, ambulances) together with improved ambulance services, including development of a statewide helicopter ambulance service operated by the state police.

4. Reform in professional licensure laws and policies relating to the recruitment to permit more flexible use of present limited supplies of physicians, nurses and other health professionals—and to eliminate roadblocks that now discourage professionals of other states and foreign countries from coming to Illinois.

We also support development in Illinois of experimental approaches to purchasing health care that would provide incentives to providers to provide preventive health services that can reduce the incidence of expensive inpatient hospitalization.

The Association supports innovations in hospital organization under which the larger medical centers could share services and manpower with smaller hospitals in their general service area.

William J. Silverman, general director of Michael Reese Hospital and Medical Center in Chicago, is the 1971 president of the Association.

Kenneth C. Etcheson, administrator of the Graham Hospital Association in Canton, is president of the Illinois Hospital Association. The treasurer is Anthony J. Perry, executive vice-president and director of IHA, a non-profit voluntary organization. It represents a $1.3 billion-a-year health service system that employs over 145,000 people.

The Association acts as the spokesman and program coordinator for hospitals in their interactions with public groups and both voluntary and governmental health agencies.

Temple McFayden Will Speak Here

JANUARY 14, 1946
Temple McFayden, director of the Illinois State Housing Board, will discuss the housing situation—from the standpoint of procedure for state cooperation to meet local demands—at a public meeting of the Chamber of Commerce.

We had the privilege of discussing the local acute housing shortage with Senators James Tamm and William Knowlton and with the Illinois State Engineer Dept. on their worldwide tour to try and speed up disposal of surplus property. Sen. Knowlton displayed intense interest in our problem, asking numerous pertinent questions, and assured us he would use his efforts to secure some relief.

We reviewed for him the huge war production in the Quad-Cities, the fact that reconversion was a production operation which not only kept war workers at their jobs but made jobs for more, and the further fact that nearly 6,000 servicemen are returning home now, all needing places to live.

We pointed out that the Depot has quonset huts which the city is ready to haul to vacant lots and set up as temporary homes for veterans, and the Depot has $168,000 worth of lumber on hand while our lumber yards are literally "waiting a tick," a real specialized kind of lumber. We pointed out that we could do about it without delay.

In new sessions in order for the city, lumber yards and builders to press their claims with the War Department and Reconstruction Finance Corp. For people to be without places to live while ready-made housing and lumber to build homes lie idle in their backyard due to "red tape" is more than a crying shame.

Guitarist Realizes Dream, Builds Recording Studio

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer

The days when a recording company could find a talented group, put it under contract and foot the bill for recording sessions and record dubbings, unfortunately, have gone the way of the Model "T".

Today if a group wants to make a record, it pays more than $100 per hour to use a recording studio and then is charged high fees for dubbing the record.

Herb Sadler, popular area guitarist, thinks he has found an answer to this problem for local bands—a small basement recording studio which can be used to make professional quality tapes, and Sadler's direct contact with several record companies that charge fair rates for their work.

The studio was a dream Sadler had in 1983 while he was a staff guitarist for Paramount Motion Pictures. He became familiar with recording studios and what was needed to build a good one.

Bought Equipment

From then on, Herb spent a good deal of his earnings collecting studio equipment while traveling with Ike and Tina Turner and other groups throughout the United States and Europe.

"I want to be able to do something for our local groups," Sadler said when he began in January, 1970, dividing up the basement of his mother's home, 1512 Second St., Madison, for the studio.

Much of the equipment he already had and some he had to order, but the majority of the furnishings Sadler "created." "I knew what was needed for a good studio acoustically, and I just couldn't see paying a fortune for it," he related. "I'd just have to pass the cost onto the kids. So he covered the walls with blankets and padding, the ceiling with padded egg cartons and the floor with old carpets. The small room, although it isn't much to look at, is acoustically comparable to the best studios.

Padding for Drummer

To avoid a set of drums drowning out everything in the small studio, Sadler built a "well" out of old padding and fiberglass padding. The unit puts the drummer in a corner of the room and surrounds him with sound-stopping walls, making it possible for him to play as loud as he desires without the sound spilling over into microphones in other parts of the studio.

Earlier this week, the studio named the RPM Recording Studio, opened officially when a group called the "Darrell and Darrell Creation" began recording. Herb had used his own group, Herb Sadler and the Emperors of Rhythm, to test the equipment and studio earlier, but the Creation was the first "paying customer" to use the facility and Sadler's dream became a reality.

The session was a studio encounter with several record companies that charge fair rates for their work. The studio was a dream Sadler had in 1983 while he was a staff guitarist for Paramount Motion Pictures. He became familiar with recording studios and what was needed to build a good one.

Despite the multiplicity of sounds, all going at one time, Sadler proved himself an expert at controlling an engineering board, as he is at playing the guitar.

Music Majors

The "Darrell and Darrell Creation" is named for guitarist Darrell Harbison and percussionist Daryl Ridgeway. Both are Granite City music majors who play with the Southern Illinois University-Southwestern stage band. Harbison also is a local guitar teacher and won top honors in the Mid-American Music Association's annual performers' competition last year.

Flutist, clarinetist and Tazman yell for the group is David Lynn of Alton who was a former music major at SIU-SW and who also has played with the stage band. Bass guitarist Joe Foss, Belleville, who plays piano and clarinet when needed, rounds out the male complement of the group.

Those of the fairer sex, adding beauty and talent, are Mary Dooley and Barb Knapp of Granite City, both excellent singers who follow the style of the famous "Brazil 66" group. In their recording session, seven microphones were required, and afterwards Sadler said, "I'm closing the studio next Monday and Tuesday. I put in at least two more microphone jacks." "If they are going to continue recording here, I'm going to have to," he said.

FIRST GROUP to use the new recording studio was the "Darrell and Darrell Creation" including from left, Joe Foss, David Lynn, Mary Dooley and Barb Knapp. The two Darrells, Darrell Harbison and Daryl Ridgeway are not shown.

Sadler has always enjoyed working with local bands and helping them gain recognition. "I think building this studio will help them more than anything I could have done," he said. "I have a lot of money tied up in equipment here," Sadler said, "but I'm not going to charge these kids too much. The price now is $15 per hour and I intend to keep it that way for a long, long time... maybe forever."

Chouteau Group Sues State Over Landfill

A suit to force four state officials to take action against MAL landfill operators was filed Monday in Madison County Circuit Court for the Chouteau Island Citizens Association.

The complaint alleges that the operators have been using state-owned land adjacent to the landfill for dumping garbage and trash, and efforts to obtain state action have been unsuccessful.

Defendants are William F. Cellini, director of the Department of Public Works and Buildings; William Scott, attorney general; Franklin D. Yoder, director of the Department of Public Health; and Clarence W. Klassen, technical secretary of the Illinois Pollution Control Board.

For the next 45 days, our car deals will give you more than a car.

These days, every car dealer is offering you a deal. Including us. The difference is, our deal includes more than a car. On cars delivered now through February 28, during our "What-Would-You-Do" Special, American Motors will give you a General Electric 12-Inch Portable TV with any new car you buy from us. But that doesn't mean we won't give you a good deal, too. Because we've got the best cars we ever had this year, and we're going all-out to give you a better deal than you can get anywhere else. Plus the tv set. Maybe you don't expect this much from a car dealer, but, if you had to compete with GM, Ford and Chrysler dealers, what would you do?

Employment Survey Planned in Area

A number of households in this area will take part in a nationwide survey on employment and unemployment to be conducted the week of Jan. 18-23 by the Bureau of the Census, Curtis T. Hill, Director of the Bureau's regional office in Chicago, announced today.

This is a continuing survey which the Census Bureau has been conducting each month since 1942. Households are selected by scientific methods to represent a cross section of all households throughout the United States.

Statistics on conditions in the labor force, especially on the unemployed, are prime measures of the economic health of the Nation. In November, for example, the survey indicated that there were 4.6 million unemployed persons looking for work. Unemployment had moved up from a seasonally adjusted rate of 5.6% in October to 5.8% in November, the highest level since May 1965. The overall employment situation continued to reflect the impact of the automobile strike, which did not end until after the November survey period.

Facts about individuals collected in the survey are held confidential by law; the results, which are published by the U. S. Department of Labor, are shown only as statistical totals.

Equipment Malfunction Caused Corn 'Shower'

Adjustment of newly installed collectors on feed dryer units at the Marshall Division plant of Miles Laboratories, Inc. (formerly the Union Division), was being stepped up this week to avert any further discharge of particles.

B. J. Hunter, vice-president of operations, said that a malfunction in a collector unit during the weekend allowed small particles of corn feed to escape into the air and settle on area residents' homes and cars. Since the particles had not completed the drying process, they were slightly moist and clung to the surfaces on which they landed, Hunter said.

"It has happened before . . . but as soon as we know about it, we do something about it, even if a shutdown of that unit is necessary," Hunter said. "There are about nine dryer units in operation at the plant."

"We just put some new collectors in the units during the Christmas shutdown and they will have to undergo a two or three month adjustment period," Hunter added. He said the discharges represent more than a nuisance to the public; they also represent a loss to the company as the particles are nearly a completed product when they escape.

Status of EOC Member Subject of Hearing

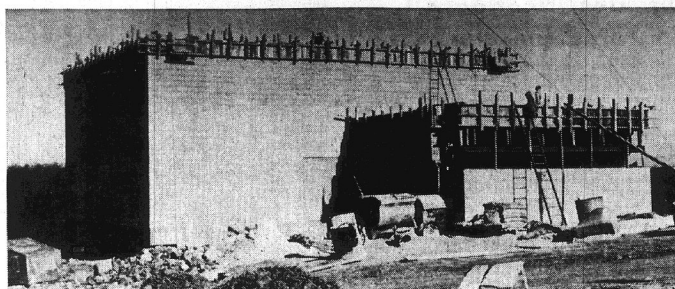

A special committee of the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission which heard a request for removal of a commission member at a hearing in Madison last week will present its recommendations at a meeting of the county anti-poverty agency on Wednesday, Jan. 20.

The committee, headed by the Reverend Terrace Shum, pastor of St. Mark's Catholic Church, Venice, and EOC commissioner, heard testimony by Eddie Lee Salmond, president of the Eagle Park Improvement Association, concerning charges against Herman Smith, a resident of Eagle Park and a representative of the poor on the county commission.

Smith has been involved in a dispute with Salmond over statements Smith made at a hearing of the Illinois Commission on Human Relations on police-community tensions in Eagle Park, among other allegations.

Maurice Harris, EOC executive director, said the commission would withhold an announcement in the matter until commissioners have been advised of the committee's decision. Smith has agreed to voluntarily discontinue service on the commission until a decision is reached, Harris said.

About 40 attended Thursday's hearing at the Madison Neighborhood Service Center.

KETC Broadcast Center Nearing Completion

Channel Nine's new broadcast center, being constructed in south St. Louis County, is nearing completion. Located under a 1,073-foot antenna structure on Butler Hill Road west of Highway 21, the new KETC facilities will house a new 316,000 watt Gates color transmitter, new color film chains, network interconnection facilities from the Public Broadcasting Service, and microwave receivers from Channel Nine's service and production facilities which will remain at Millbrook and Big Bend, St. Louis.

KETC's new Broadcast Center is scheduled for activation in the fall of 1971. Included is a maintenance shop where almost a Million dollars worth of equipment will be housed. In the center of the building is a 15-story structure which will house the master controls, transmitter, and a multiplexer and switching equipment.

Conversion of KETC's Millbrook and Big Bend studios to color will be a later step in the upgrading process for the non-commercial station. Located immediately behind the building is the base of a new antenna structure which will be 88 feet taller than Paris' Eiffel Tower.

A fund-raising drive started in 1968 has provided more than two-thirds of the total cost of the project with $411,000 remaining to be raised in the drive. Contributions may be sent to KETC, 696 Millbrook Blvd., St. Louis, Mo.

Narcotic, Drug Identification Kit Presented CYS For Counseling Use

By VALERIE EVENDEN
Press-Record Staff Writer

A graphic display of narcotics and dangerous drugs—the type used by addicts and in and around the Quad-City area—was presented last week to Coordinated Youth Services by the Granite City Kiwanis Club.

The vivid assortment is contained in a portable display kit, known as a Master Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs Identification Kit, which was purchased by the local Kiwanians for use in educational programs offered by the Tri-Cities Coordinated Youth Services.

The narcotics display will be exhibited by Robert (Bob) Burroughs, a drug counselor attached to the local CYS office, whose personal experiences on the drug scene make him an authority and an effective spokesman against misuse and abuse of drugs.

Area organizations, including parent and youth groups, interested in hearing a presentation detailing the present-day drug problem from a local viewpoint may contact Burroughs for an appointment. C. A. "Bud" MacMillan, CYS executive director, announced today.

The drug counselor may be reached by calling the confidential telephone number—876-2333—weekdays between 9 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

By dialing the same number, individuals wishing to remain anonymous also can get assistance or give information concerning narcotics and drug abuse without fear of legal consequences, MacMillan explained.

Drugs Identified
The compact identification kit, to be displayed by Burroughs in his talks, illustrates in detail the various forms that narcotics and drugs are found. Sections of the kit include the hallucinogen drugs—LSD—known as acid to users which produces a trip lasting from 4 to 12 hours and induces hallucinations, impairs judgment and can cause drastic changes in perception and personality.

Marijuana, which hits close to home and probably is the narcotic most widely used in this area, is displayed in the list. The pot smoker, numbering in excess of 2 million college and high school students, according to the National Institute of Mental Health, gets an exaggerated idea of his ability, coordination may be difficult and at the wheel of a car he becomes a menace.

The kit also identifies the "up and down" drugs—the amphetamines, barbiturates and tranquilizers. This form of drug abuse often begins with a doctor's prescription for pills which have a proper place in medical treatment.

Barbiturates are sedatives and the leading cause of accidental deaths in this country. When abused they are called "goat balls" and absorbed in large amounts lead to intoxication and addiction associated with heroin.

Pep Pill Syndrome
Amphetamines are stimulants. Known as "pep pills," "diet pills," "bennies" and numerous other names, they keep a person awake, supply new energy and kill the appetite.

Continued and excessive use of amphetamines can result in hallucinations, unhealthy loss of weight and dangerous aggressiveness. An increased number of auto accidents involve drivers using pills to keep awake.

Volatile substances used by snifters also are displayed—paint thinner, glue and gasoline—a favorite of youngsters between 10 and 14 years.

Heroin—the "hard drug," a derivative of opium, known as "H," "Snow" or "Junk"—is shown, together with devices for inducing the drug into the veins.

When the "H" user becomes addicted, the body needs the drug two or three times a day and the condition means he is "hooked."

To supply his habit, the hard drug manliner, though not necessarily a hardened criminal, must steal, rob, loot and mug to get the money.

It Happens Here
Not long ago, the person who used drugs was viewed as a hopeless outcast existing in the shadows of the criminal world. Drug addiction was considered a disease of the big-city slums.

Drug addiction didn't really touch the American community. It wouldn't really happen in the average American family. This was the popular misconception.

Today, millions of men, women and youth are taking illegal drugs or abusing drugs prescribed only for medical purposes. Burroughs noted that drugs are found in the suburbs, among the middle and upper classes, along high school corridors, in college campuses and in the pocket of the kid next door.

Not only criminals, but students—high school and junior high school age—and professional people are pushing drugs into every corner of society, he pointed out.

Education First Step
The first step in preventing or curbing the drug problem is to know what they are—how to spot the user and where assistance for him or her is available, Burroughs said.

Coordinated Youth Services, the area's foremost agency in drug abuse counseling, offers this opportunity to Quad-Cityans to learn first-hand about the drug problem.

In addition, to presentations made by Burroughs and qualified personnel from the Granite City police department, selected publications on drug dependence and abuse are now available to parents and organizations from the CYS office, 1235 Niederhous Ave.

Two informative booklets available to the public without charge, include "The Glue Sniffing Problem" and "Speed Kills: The Amphetamine Abuse Problem."

A special packet containing drug abuse information material may be obtained from the CYS office at a cost of $3 per packet. MacMillan announced last week.

Mexican Commission Installs Officers

A champagne cocktail hour and banquet honored officials of the Mexican Honorary Commission who were installed this week in ceremonies at the Granite City Jaycee Clubhouse, 1855 Poplar St.

More than 100 attending the installation party enjoyed a cocktail hour hosted by the wives of the incoming officers and trustees, followed with a catered dinner. Music was provided by Florentino Cuevas.

Appointments at the dinner tables and about the hall were in the color schemes of red, white and green, and red, white and blue, representing the colors of the Mexican and American flags.

Champagne glasses, inscribed "Steve—1971" and emblazoned with the tri-colors of the Mexican flag, were presented each guest as a souvenir. The imprinted glasses honored Steve Ortiz, who was in stalled for his third term as Commission president. Ortiz also was presented a brief case to mark the occasion.

Officials installed with Ortiz included:

Robert Robles, first vice-president; Joseph Becerra, second vice-president; A. L. "Pete" Metcalf, treasurer; Mrs. Barbara Valencia, recording secretary; Mrs. Antonia Lopez, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Elva Ortiz, public relations officer; and trustees, August Becerra, Otilio Valencia Jr., Jesse Ybarra, Robert Grieve, Donald Valencia, Stanley Valencia and Abel Valencia.

Metcalf, who is president of the Granite City board of education, served as master-of-ceremonies and his wife, Mrs. Avenette Metcalf, was the installing officer.

Dancing was enjoyed after dinner, and Mrs. Linda Garcia was awarded the attendance prize.

Those responsible for arranging the banquet were Mrs. Mary Batson, Mrs. Metcalf and Mrs. Ortiz.

Nine Defendants Appear in Court Here on Monday

Robert Dale Waters, 17, of 2202 Benton St., and Robert Douglas Pittman, 17, of 2059 Cleveland Blvd., were held at the Madison County Jail on $5,000 bonds set Monday by Magistrate Joseph Kelleher on a charge of burglary at the Dog 'N Suds Drive-in Sunday.

Police reports said they also were considered as suspects in a break-in at the Jack-in-the-Box Drive-In, 3330 Nameoki Road, last Saturday morning.

Other defendants appearing Monday before Magistrate Kelleher included:

John Nishke, 23, of 1641 Fourth St., Madison, who pleaded innocent to five charges and was taken to the county jail in lieu of $2,500 bond.

He was arrested Friday on the lot at Kozzy's Market on charges of aggravated assault, unlawful use of weapon, no firearm identification card, improper display of license plates and no driver's license. He asked for a jury trial.

Pleads Innocent

Arrested with him was Sharon Gay Howland, 26, of 2311 North St., who pleaded innocent to charges of disorderly conduct and no firearm identification card. She was released on $125 cash bail.

Dolphine Baker, 20, of 2804 Palmer Ave., who was released on $250 bond after being arrested at her home Friday on a charge of illegal possession of a narcotic drug.

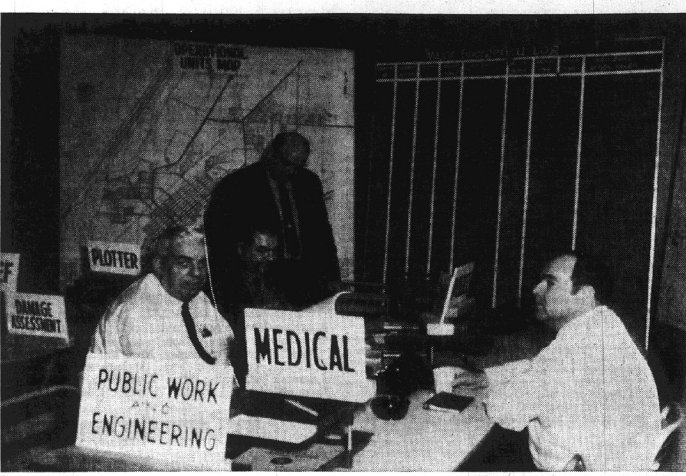

Arrested at her home on disorderly conduct charges were Dennis Barbee, 22, of 4917 Carl Ave., who pleaded innocent and posted cash bail of $75, and Dennis Burgess, 27, of Campbell, Mo., who pleaded innocent and posted $250 bond or $75 cash bail.

Thomas Hogue, 23, of 805 Grand Ave., Madison, who pleaded innocent to theft of more than $150, an auto, and to using fictitious license plates. He requested a preliminary hearing. Cash bail of $300 was set. He was arrested Sunday at 25th Street and Edison Avenue.

Kenneth Edwards, 22, of 2600 E. 24th St., who pleaded guilty to three charges. He was fined $80 and costs for careless driving and $25 and costs for leaving the scene of an accident Friday at 2816 Edwards St. and was sentenced to seven days in the county jail for driving with a suspended license.

Slides into Accident

An auto driven by Jacqueline R. Pierce, Rural Route Two, slid sideways while attempting a left turn and struck the auto of Raymond C. Gaines, 3322 Palm St., who was stopped in traffic Monday at Johnson and Nameoki Roads.

Auto Plate Deadline Only a Month Away

The deadline for displaying 1971 license plates on the vehicles is only a month away, Secretary of State John V. Lewis today warned Illinois motorists.

The new plates must be mounted on the vehicles, not merely applied for, by midnight Monday, Feb. 15, Secretary Lewis said.

Those motorists who plan to apply for their plates by mail should do so within the next two weeks in order to allow sufficient time for processing applications and delivery of plates in time for the deadline, he advised. Their applications should be in the Secretary of State's office no later than January 25. License plates are third class mail and require more time for delivery than first class mail.

Registration at present has almost reached the 2 million mark, less than half the estimated total that should be registered by Feb. 15. Registration at that time is expected to be about 4.3 million, and the entire year, about 4.9 million.

The plates may be purchased over the counter at two Secretary of State's office outlets in Springfield and three in Chicago, and also at 91 banks throughout the state, Lewis said.

Registration at present has almost reached the 2 million mark, less than half the estimated total that should be registered by Feb. 15. Registration at that time is expected to be about 4.3 million, and the entire year, about 4.9 million.

Actor William Gargan to Attend Mardi Gras Ball

William (Bill) Gargan, internationally known actor and crusader for the American Cancer Society, will be the guest of honor at the first annual Mardi Gras Costume Ball, sponsored by the Cancer Society's Madison County Unit, it was announced today.

The affair will take place Saturday, Feb. 20, in the Grand Ball Room of the Mineral Springs Hotel in Alton. Many Quad-Cityans are expected to attend the event.

Gargan, who made more than 100 motion pictures, was stricken with cancer while playing the role of an ex-president dying of cancer in Gore Vidal's play, "The Best Man."

"Today, as a spokesman for the American Cancer Society, I can say I'm the luckiest guy living. By joining the fight against cancer I have been privileged in bringing hope and optimism to others who have had the Big-C," Gargan said.

In addition to appearing at the Mardi Gras Ball, the actor will be the honored guest and meet patrons at a champagne cocktail party hosted by members of the Madison County Unit's executive board of directors immediately preceding the costume affair.

Gargan has performed in such film productions as: "They Knew What They Wanted," "Night Flight: Animal Kingdom," "Destination Unknown: Rawhide Years: The Bells of St. Mary's," "I Wake Up Screaming: Miracle in the Rain: Four Frightened People: and Housekeeper's Daughter."

He also has appeared in stage presentations such as "The Best Man," "Desperate Hours: The People: Laugh That Off: Chicago: Aloma of the Seas: The War Song: Roar China: He and They Meet."

Gargan gained further prominence by portraying Martin Kane, Private Eye, in a television series, and by appearing on the George Gobel Show, Ford Theatre, Heinz Playhouse and many others. His radio experience extends of over three decades.

Jewish Hospital Offers Nurse Refresher Course

A six-week Nurse Refresher Course will be offered by The Jewish Hospital School of Nursing. This program is designed for registered nurses who have been away from nursing for five or more years.

The course will consist of a review of basic procedures, new medications and equipment, and will provide experience on the patient divisions. The course is available at no charge and will be conducted Feb. 22 through April 3, from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. For further information and application, interested persons may call The Jewish Hospital of St. Louis, 367-8000, Station 361.

Delta Kappa Gamma Aids Indians

Cletus Wilson, president of the American Indian Development Organization, a non-profit group dedicated to seeking and coordinating area donations to Indian tribes on reservations in South Dakota, was the principal speaker during the weekend at a breakfast meeting of the Delta Kappa Gamma Chapter.

The chapter, consisting of women educators from area school systems, met at the First Presbyterian Church in Edwardsville. Hostesses were Josephine O'Neil, Marie Boda, Laura Uffers, Helen Thatcher and Alma Eilers.

Wilson, a resident of Caseyville and an employee of American Steel Foundries, described the plight of the reservation Indians and their need for assistance. A large quantity of food and clothing donated by chapter members was accepted by Wilson, who personally arranged to transport the contributions to South Dakota.

Miss Anna Marie Horn, who introduced the guest speaker and arranged the program, said the women's group has concentrated its efforts the past two

Norma Miller Bride of Anthony K. Szymcek

The wedding of Miss Norma Miller, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Miller, 2505 Illinois Ave., and Anthony K. Szymcek, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Victor Szymcek, 264 Fourteenth St., took place Jan. 9 at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church.

The Rev. Lawrence Mattingly officiated at 2 o'clock in the afternoon before the altar decorated with blue and white chrysanthemums and a reception followed at the Ponton Beach Firemen's Hall.

An A-line gown of white organza with lace appliques from the waist to the hem was worn by the bride who was escorted by her father. The long lace sleeves tapered to points at the wrists and a detachable train of matching lace swept from the shoulders. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Miss Kathy Grange, maid of honor, and two bridesmaids, Miss Janis Etheridge and Miss Dorothy Miller, the latter a sister of the bride, wore gowns with royal blue velvet bodices and light blue chiffon skirts over taffeta. Their flowers were blue and white pompons.

Tasha Szymcek, a niece of the bridegroom, and Billy Moore, the bride's cousin, were flower girl and ring bearer. The former dressed like the older attendants, carried blue and white flowers.

Edward Duffin, a brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man and Joe Szymcek, a brother, and Tom Papp served as groomsmen and ushers.

The newlyweds are residing at 1921 Grand Ave.

Both young people are graduates of the Granite City High School and the bride is employed by a St. Louis insurance company. Mr. Szymcek is an employee of the Duffin Bros., Lumber Co. in Madison.

The rehearsal dinner was given in the bridegroom's parents' home.

MISS WENDY SUE MATHEWSON. Her engagement to Clark Allen Niepert is announced today.

Wendy Sue Mathewson Betrothed

Dr. and Mrs. Raymond G. Mathewson of Pana, Ill., are 1960, and received his degree in Education from Eastern Illinois University, Charleston, in 1969. He is now teaching German in the Pana Junior and senior High Schools.

An early fall wedding is planned by the young people. Miss Mathewson, a graduate of the Pana High School, is now a senior at Millikin University, Decatur, where she is majoring in History.

Her fiancé graduated from

P.E.O. Chapter HT Has Meeting

Mrs. Harold Fischer entertained Chapter HT of the P.E.O. Sisterhood Monday at a meeting in her home on Madison Ave.

After a dessert course Mrs. Charles Kohl, president, called the group to order for a lengthy business session.

An invitation was read to a luncheon, style show and card party to be given by Chapter HT of East St. Louis Jan. 25. It will be with Mrs. Richard West, 1202 Twenty-seventh St.

MISS MANN HONOREE AT BRIDAL SHOWER

Miss Mariene Mann, who will be married Feb. 13 to Craig Nunn, was guest of honor last week at a pre-wedding party and shower given by Mrs. Joyce Boushield, Mrs. Linda Angle and Miss Robin Jung at the home of the former, 17 Nassau.

Those present were Mrs. Modena Mann and Mrs. Marian Nunn, mothers of the bride and groom-to-be, Mrs. Sandra Barton, Mrs. Jan Wortham, Mrs. Charlotte Powell, and Misses Deb Burnett, Melva Eilebracht, Diana Jo Thuis, Mary Ann Luebert and the bride-to-be.

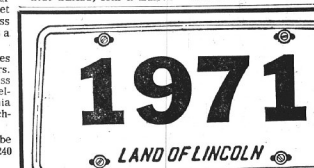

White and royal blue, the wedding colors, were used in the appointments of the shower and refreshments were served by the hostesses.

LESSON SERMON ON "LIFE" SUNDAY

What life really means in the light of the Christianity taught by Christ Jesus will be considered Sunday at Christian Science church services. The lesson-sermon on "Life" consists of these words of the Master: "Christian: 'The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.'"

Services will be held at First Church of Christ, Scientist at 10:45 a.m. Sunday. The church is located at 2560 Delmar Ave.

St. John Evening Guild Has Meet

The Evening Guild of St. John United Church of Christ met Monday at the church where the members were joined by the Brotherhood for the worship service, program and refreshments.

The guest speaker was the Rev. Dr. John Schmidt of Brighton who discussed "Agriculture in the Philippines" and illustrated his talk with slides.

Separate business sessions were held by the two groups with Mrs. Karmyn Wagner, president, in charge of the women's group.

Plans were made for a meeting at the Colonades Nursing Home in February, and a "white elephant" sale in March. Twenty-four were present at the Guild meeting, including three guests, Mrs. Irene Kueter, Mrs. Marie Wille and Mrs. Julia Manior, and refreshments consisted of favorite desserts of the members, copies of which were brought to the meeting.

The serving committee consisted of Mrs. Marcia Buegner, Mrs. Janette Krause, Mrs. Jean Willards and Mrs. Wilma Willard.

TYPES OF MARGARINE

Brand names aside, margarine comes in several different forms. It's important to know which type of margarine you're using because they have different characteristics and intended uses. The various types of margarine and their uses are:

—Regular margarine is made from vegetable oil. It may also contain some animal fat but the label will indicate this. Packaged four sticks to a pound, this form is suitable for cooking, baking and as a spread.

Whipped margarine is made from vegetable oil. It contains whipped air to increase the volume. It comes packaged in sticks to the pound. If you use whipped margarine for cooking or baking, remember that one cup doesn't yield as much fat as a cup of regular margarine. So measure by weight—using a small kitchen scale—rather than by volume. Whipped margarine is used most often as a table spread.

Soft margarine has a high liquid oil content to make it much softer than regular margarine. Packaged half-pound tubs, it's easy to spread and blend. This form contains a high proportion of polyunsaturated fats because of the liquid oil.

Premium margarine, made from expensive vegetable oils, is the most costly margarine, and, according to many people, it's the most flavorful. This type requires constant refrigeration to protect the delicate flavor. Use it for cooking, baking, and as a spread.

Low calorie, or diet, margarine contains about half the fat content of regular margarine. Labeled imitation, this form is recommended for use as a spread only.

Unsalted margarine is made without salt for people on special restricted diets.

ORANGE BEVERAGES

Orange beverages appear on the market in many forms—frozen, refrigerated and canned orange juice, instant breakfast drinks, and bottled and canned beverages.

The wide variety of orange drinks offers the homemaker convenience and a range of choices. But the array can also cause confusion. Homemakers often wonder how these products compare in nutritive value with fresh fruit and juice.

Research at the University of Illinois shows that orange juices, processed in various ways, provide a more reliable source of Vitamin C than do orange flavored punches and drinks. Here's a description of the various orange flavored beverages:

—Canned orange juice is not diluted or concentrated during processing.

—Frozen orange juice is concentrated during processing. When reconstituted as directed on the label, frozen orange juice has approximately the same vitamin content as juice from fresh oranges and canned juice.

—Refrigerated, pasteurized orange juice may be fresh orange juice and no more than one-fourth reconstituted frozen juice. It may include orange pulp, orange oil and sugars to enhance the flavor.

—Orange flavored breakfast drinks—dry or frozen—have orange flavor and color but may contain little or no natural orange juice. Many have Vitamin C added. Read the label to determine the amount of Vitamin C an average serving will provide.

—Canned and bottled orange flavored fruit drinks generally contain some orange juice. All of the normal substances of the fruit are present but in small amounts. Sugar is usually added. Vitamin C is also added in varying amounts. The label often indicates what percentage of the adult minimum daily requirements each serving provides.

Would you like to spend less money at the grocery store? One of the ways you can cut down on the food bill is to buy the foods that the United States Department of Agriculture says will be plentiful for the month. This month's plentiful include: fresh oranges, canned orange juice, frozen orange juice concentrate, fresh grapefruit, canned grapefruit juice, fresh apples, apple sauce, apple juice, fresh potatoes, dry onions, pork and dry peas.

WOMEN GET COLLEGE COURSE WORK AT THEIR DOORSTEP

Women who are interested in furthering their college education will have the opportunity to do so this spring within easy driving distance of their home. The University of Illinois Division of University Extension is making available courses starting February 8 at 415 East Main Street, Second Floor, Belleville via the UNIVEX NET.

With the UNIVEX NET the learner can enjoy the convenience of high quality instruction near their home via the system that allows them to talk and write back immediately to the Champaign-Urbana based instructors. Rather than the student or the teacher having to travel, it is now the instruction that travels.

Courses designed to meet the professional needs of women are Home Economics E275, "Home Equipment," E276, "Evaluation in Home Economics Education," and E277, "Auditorial Communications." For those who are academically interested in the environment there is E319, "Environment and Plant Ecosystems."

For complete details on these and other credit courses offered write to Fred W. Stearns, Regional Director, Division of University Extension, 415 East Main Street, Second Floor, Belleville, Illinois 62220. Be sure to ask for the UNIVEX NET LOOP 2 Program. Enrollment must be completed by February 4.

CHATS WITH PARENTS

A new issue of Chats With Parents, the publication for parents of preschool children, is off the press. This issue is on "Children's Quarrels," and discusses possible causes of quarreling, how much quarreling is enough and what to do about it. The leaflet is available on request from the Home Economics Extension Office, Box 68, 900 Hillsboro, Edwardsville, 655-6862. If you wish to be placed on the mailing list for future issues, just request it; there is no charge.

POLISHING YOUR PLANTS

Plant polishes or rinsing with water removes dust and water stains to reveal the natural beauty of your plants.

Polishes are common items in garden stores and florist shops which are applied with a soft cloth. The combined effect of dust removal and polish impart a gloss to foliage and flowering plants. For most plants the polish is harmless but I recommend experimenting on a few leaves first. Plants should be well watered before polish is applied. Milk and oil is effective as a polish but not recommended because milk clogs the pores of the leaves and catches dust.

Hairy leafed plants like African violets and gloxinias should be brushed with a camel's hair brush or rinsed with warm water. Wiping the leaves to apply a polish destroys the natural beauty as it removes the hairs and creates a scuffed appearance.

Rinsing with warm water or wiping the foliage with a soft damp cloth will remove the dust. When water spots are present use a mild detergent in the water and dip the foliage. Follow with a clear water rinse to remove the detergent.

Ground Covers Can Be Fertilized

Winter time fertilizing is convenient and effective for ground cover plantings of ivy, ajuga, vinca and pachysandra. "Slow acting fertilizers are designed for situations where dense foliage and creeping stems can be easily injured. Milorganite is just one of these organic fertilizers designed for broadcasting over your ground cover. Products like this can be scattered over the ground cover without danger of burning the leaves or injuring the rhizomes. A single application of 2-3 pounds per square foot should be adequate for the season. Winter time rains will quickly wash these finely ground products off the foliage.

Public Notices 34

Claims against the estate may be filed in the office of the Circuit Court, Probate Division County Courthouse in Edwardsville, Illinois, within 7 months from date of issuance of letters; and any claim not so filed is barred as to the estate inventory within that period. Also, copies of claims must be mailed or delivered to the executor and to the attorney.

WILLARD V. PORTELL
Clerk of the Circuit Court.

Capt. Purcell Awarded Flying Cross by Army

Capt. Gerald L. Purcell, 30, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald T. Purcell, 1635 Sixth St., Madison, and husband of Mrs. Mary Ann Purcell of Granite City, has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross by the Army in Vietnam.

A helicopter pilot, he is assigned to the 68th Aviation Co., an assault helicopter unit, at Ben Hoa. Signed by Col. Charles R. Smith, chief of staff, the citation reads in part:

"For heroism while participating in aerial flight evidenced by voluntary actions above and beyond the call of duty, Captain Purcell distinguished himself by exceptionally valorous actions while serving as aircraft and mission commander aboard a command and control aircraft during a rescue operation in Tay Ninh Province (last Aug. 13).

"While ground troops of an Allied Division were moving to the pickup zone, they came under heavy enemy fire resulting in numerous casualties. Without regard for his own personal safety, Captain Purcell immediately maneuvered his ship into the area and began extracting wounded personnel. With the remaining ground crew and his crew supplying suppressive fire, he flew out of the contact site.

"Enroute to the nearest medical facilities, he directed emergency first aid to the wounded

C. J. Bridick Named Firearms Instructor

Charles J. Bridick, 723 Lee Ave., Madison, has been appointed a certified rifle, pistol and shotgun instructor by the National Rifle Association of America. Bridick is an officer on the Madison Police Department.

The new instructor was appointed on the basis of experience and the successful completion of an extensive examination. He is now qualified to conduct classes in basic marksmanship and safe gun handling.

Bridick joins the ranks of selected volunteer instructors throughout the country who donate many hours in the NRA small arms education program. The program has been in operation since 1876. Since that time many millions of people have been taught to handle and enjoy firearms safely and effectively.
